Renewed Motion - Motion to Dismiss - Improper Venue (FRCP 12(b)(3)) — Recommended granting

Venue
└ Venue Rules for Patent Infringement (TC Heartland)
└ Regular and Established Place of Business

The magistrate judge recommended granting defendant's motion to dismiss for improper venue because defendant did not have a regular and established business in the district through its interim control of dealerships. "[Plaintiff] argues that the 'dealers' and their employees are agents by virtue of [defendant's] alleged interim control. . . . [Plaintiff] has not shown that [defendant] has any day-to-day control over the operations of the dealership or the service department performing warranty work. Contractual provisions governing dealership locations, requiring dealerships to provide warranty services regardless of where the vehicle was purchased, and instructions for warranty services, '"are merely reflective of the ordinary desire of manufacturers to set sufficient minimum performance and quality standards to protect the good name of their trademark that they are allowing another to display" and "do not establish, without more, the kind of close control ... that would indicate"' an agency relationship. Penalties for noncompliance, are not the something 'more' [plaintiff] needs in order to show agency."

Renewed Motion - Motion to Dismiss - Improper Venue (FRCP 12(b)(3)) — Recommended granting

Venue
└ Venue Rules for Patent Infringement (TC Heartland)
└ Regular and Established Place of Business

The magistrate judge recommended granting defendant's motion to dismiss for improper venue because defendant did not have a regular and established business in the district through its visits to dealerships. "[Plaintiff] argues that venue in the Eastern District of Texas is proper because of the frequency at which [defendant] employees visit and conduct [defendant] business at dealerships in the district. . . . [Plaintiff] presented evidence of 588 dealership visits by and between five [defendant] employees responsible for 42 dealerships, and as exemplary, 41 visits by one [defendant] employee to a single dealership. . . . Whether we consider the dealerships collectively or the single dealership visited 41 times in isolation, Westport has not shown the [defendant] employee presence is predictable, subject to any pattern, or consistent with regard to the time of day or with regard to the day of the week or month. At best, [plaintiff] has shown a frequency that is 'sporadic' as opposed to 'steady, uniform, orderly, and methodical.' Importantly, there is also no showing that any room or space, or even a desk, is set aside and identified as the place for [defendant] employees when they are at the dealership."

Motion to Dismiss - Improper Venue (FRCP 12(b)(3)) — Recommended granting

Venue
└ Venue Rules for Patent Infringement (TC Heartland)
└ Regular and Established Place of Business

The magistrate judge recommended granting defendant's motion to dismiss plaintiff's patent infringement action for improper venue because defendant did not have a regular and established place of business in the district through its dealerships. "[Plaintiff] has not shown that [defendant] has any day-to-day control over the operations of the dealership or the service department performing warranty work. Contractual provisions governing dealership locations, requiring dealerships to provide warranty services regardless of where the vehicle was purchased, and instructions for warranty services, "'are merely reflective of the ordinary desire of manufacturers to set sufficient minimum performance and quality standards to protect the good name of their trademark that they are allowing another to display" and "do not establish, without more, the kind of close control ... that would indicate"' an agency relationship. . . . Whether we consider the dealerships collectively or individually, [plaintiff] has not shown that [defendant's] employee presence is predictable, subject to any pattern, or consistent with regard to the time of day or with regard to the day of the week or month. . . . [Plaintiff] demonstrates that [defendant] owns and leases a hardware and software kit used in connection with warranties, recalls, diagnostics, and repairs worth approximately $420,000. However, that evidence does not demonstrate that [defendant] 'had an employee ... with a regular, physical presence' in the district."

Motion to Dismiss - Improper Venue (FRCP 12(b)(3)) — Granted

District Court Procedural Issues
└ Judge
└ Review of Magistrate Judge Decision/Report

Venue
└ Venue Rules for Patent Infringement (TC Heartland)
└ Regular and Established Place of Business

The court overruled plaintiff's objections to the magistrate judge's recommendation to grant defendant's motion to dismiss plaintiff's patent infringement action for improper venue because defendant did not have a regular and established place of business in the district through its dealerships. "[W]hile a regular series of acts may establish venue, a sporadic set of acts cannot. . . . Plaintiff's evidence of [defendant's] presence in the district primarily consisted of, and relied on, 588 dealership visits over the course of a year between five [defendant] employees responsible for 42 dealerships. Indeed, Plaintiff's evidence demonstrates a set of sporadic visits. But contrary to its assertion, Plaintiff failed to offer any evidence that demonstrated such visits were 'steady, uniform, orderly, and methodical,' as the Magistrate Judge's Report finds. . . . Plaintiff failed to cite any controlling law to support its contention that the existence of [defendant] equipment or personal property within the district is relevant to this inquiry."
