Lists

See all 3GPP email exploder lists at list.3gpp.org

This list-of-lists also contains all the ETSI exploder lists, however the majority of the 3GPP lists are located right at the top.

In order to subscribe to any of these lists, scroll down until you find the list you are interested in, click on the link and follow the simple instructions.

Those delegates who already have an ETSI username and password should use the list management application on the ETSI site.

If you have any problems subscribing to the lists, or you are unsure of which list would be of interest to you send an email to contact@3gpp.org.
