

The investment universe offers infinite opportunities. New trends often emerge over night. Picking the right moment is crucial. Now there is a way you can react easily and flexibly to investment trends and the market environment. The interactive online issuing platform Vontobel Deritrade. This platform allows you to tailor structure products to your clients' needs. Even for small investment amounts. There are just four simple steps. Make your selection from an extensive universe of underlyings and structures. Taping into the benefits offered by different asset classes such as equities indices, currency pairs and commodities. Be it at the term strike price or barrier level. You set the parameters you want and so customize the structured product according to your clients' specific return targets and risk appetite. You can simulate various possibilities in real time. Change the parameters and get real time prices within a matter of seconds. Take advantage of direct product comparisons gage various product from Vontobel and offer issuers against each other. Chose the best product for your client and execute the transaction. You'll receive the corresponding term sheets immediately after conclusion. Vontobel deritrade's after sales service will be there to support throughout the product life cycle. Take advantage of the management information system. Integrate Deritrade in your company's internal processes and use it at the point of sale. Vontobel Deritrade thus offers you a 360 degree value chain. And you pass on this comprehensive service to your clients in the form of professional support. Explore the world of structured products. The Deritrade team will be happy to help with any questions you may have. Vontobel Deritrade the interactive issuing platform that adds value for you and your clients.