ORDER
Dismissing Without Prejudice Petitioner's
Motions for Admission Pro Hac Vice of Rachael McCracken
37 C.F.R. § 42.10

[1] This Order addresses issues common to each of these proceedings and we use this caption for efficiency. The parties may not use this style heading in any subsequent papers without authorization.

On January 20, 2025, Petitioner filed motions for admission pro hac vice of Rachael McCracken in these proceedings. Paper 27.[2] On January 29, 2025, we emailed the parties noting various defects in the motions that Petitioner needed to correct in order for the motions to be granted. See Ex. 3002 (noting, among other defects, the failure to list all other proceedings before the Office for which the individual has applied to appear pro hac vice in the last three (3) years). We followed up on this issue in an email to the parties on April 24, 2025. Petitioner has not remedied the defects.

We have now entered final written decisions in these proceedings. Therefore, we dismiss the motions without prejudice. See 37 C.F.R. § 42.71(a) ("The Board may take up petitions or motions for decisions in any order, may grant, deny, or dismiss any petition or motion, and may enter any appropriate order.").

Accordingly, it is

ORDERED that Petitioner's motions for pro hac vice admission of Rachael McCracken are dismissed without prejudice.
