Case IPR2023-01346
U.S. Patent No. 10,633,344

DECLARATION OF TAYLOR BURGENER IN SUPPORT OF PATENT OWNERS' MOTION FOR PRO HAC VICE ADMISSION

EXHIBIT 2001
Novartis v. The Regents of Univ. of MI
IPR2023-01346

I, Taylor Burgener, hereby declare to the following:

1. I am a member in good standing of the State Bars of California and District of Columbia, United States.

2. I have not been suspended or disbarred from practice before any court or administrative body.

3. I have never had an application for admission to practice before any court or administrative body denied.

4. No sanction or contempt citation has been imposed against me by any court or administrative body.

5. I have read and will comply with the Office Patent Trial Practice Guide and the Board's Rules of Practice for Trials set forth in Part 42 of Title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

6. I will be subject to the USPTO Rules of Professional Conduct set forth in 37 C.F.R. §§ 11.101 et seq. and disciplinary jurisdiction under 37 C.F.R. § 11.19(a).

7. In the past three years, I have not applied for admission pro hac vice in any proceeding before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

8. I am a litigation attorney with 6 years of experience representing clients in patent cases in the electronical and computer technology, telecommunications, and life sciences industries. I regularly litigate patent cases in various forums including before the International Trade Commission and United States District Courts for the Districts of Maryland, Delaware, Eastern District of Texas, Western District of Texas, Central District of California, Southern District of California, Northern District of California, Eastern District of Virginia, and Northern District of West Virginia. Through my experience in patent litigation matters, I have represented clients in many phases of litigation including in drafting and responding to discovery, working with technical experts, taking depositions, drafting motions, and conducting pre-suit diligence. I have also been substantively involved in developing technical and legal arguments. My biography is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

9. I am intimately familiar with the issues and subject matter presented in this above-captioned inter partes review proceeding. For example, I have extensively reviewed the above identified patent, its prosecution history, the Petition for IPR (including the invalidity grounds therein, and the cited references) and all exhibits filed in this case.

10. I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: May 1, 2024

/Taylor Burgener/

Overview

Taylor Burgener dedicates her practice to intellectual property litigation. She has experience in U.S. District Courts and the U.S. International Trade Commission, and she is also heavily involved in pro bono casework related to sexual discrimination in the workplace, immigration matters, custody disputes, and children's rights to educational resources.

Taylor has handled various aspects of offensive and defensive complex patent litigation, including pre-suit due diligence, fact and expert discovery, taking depositions and preparing expert reports, developing technical positions on infringement and invalidity, and drafting dispositive motions. Her technical experience spans a wide variety of technologies, including telecommunication systems, software, electrical and computer technology, life sciences, and lithium-ion batteries. She has also worked on non-technical issues, including damages and licensing analyses, and economic domestic industry.

Before law school, Taylor worked at a diagnostic laboratory as a quality control associate, where she verified product viability before release to customers. While pursuing her bachelor's degree in biochemistry, Taylor was involved in physical chemistry research. She was also an NCAA Division I rower at the University of San Diego.
