~~DEFAULT~~ JOINT PROPOSED AMENDED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Case No.: IPR2024-00004
U.S. Patent No. 11,491,835

~~The following Default Protective Order will govern the filing and treatment of confidential information in the proceeding:~~

~~Default Protective Order~~

This protective order governs the treatment and filing of confidential information, including documents and testimony.

1. Confidential information shall be clearly marked "PROTECTIVE ORDER MATERIAL."

2. Access to confidential information is limited to the following ~~individuals~~ persons or entities who have executed the acknowledgment appended to this order:

(A) Parties. ~~Persons~~ Corporate entities, through their outside attorneys, who are either (i)~~who are~~ owners of a patent involved in the proceeding, or (ii) ~~and other persons who~~ are named parties to the proceeding. This definition excludes any natural persons having ownership of, working on behalf of, or that are otherwise affiliated with the corporate entities, other than their outside attorneys.

(B) Party Representatives. Representatives of record for a party in the proceeding.

(C) Experts. Retained experts of a party in the proceeding who further certify in the Acknowledgement that they are not a competitor to any party, or a consultant for, or employed by, such a competitor with respect to the subject matter of the proceeding.

~~(D) In-house counsel. In-house counsel of a party.~~

(D~~E~~) Support Personnel. Attorneys affiliated with the law firms of record in inter partes review Nos. IPR2023-01161 and IPR2024-00098 (the "Co-Pending IPRs") or the district court case Nuhn Industries Ltd. v. Bazooka Farmstar LLC, Case No. 3:22-cv-00015 (S.D. Iowa) (the "'015 Litigation"), Administrative assistants, clerical staff, court reporters and other support personnel of the foregoing persons who are reasonably necessary to assist those persons in the proceeding shall not be required to sign an Acknowledgement, but shall be informed of the terms and requirements of the Protective Order by the person they are supporting who receives confidential information.

(E~~F~~) The Office. Employees and representatives of the United States Patent and Trademark Office who have a need for access to the confidential information shall have such access without the requirement to sign an Acknowledgement. Such employees and representatives shall include the Director, members of the Board and their clerical staff, other support personnel, court reporters, and other persons acting on behalf of the Office.

3. Employees (e.g., corporate officers, directors, or shareholders), consultants, or other persons performing work for a party, other than those persons identified above in ~~(d)~~(2)(A)–(D~~E~~), shall be extended access to confidential information only upon agreement of the parties or by order of the Board upon a motion brought by the party seeking to disclose confidential information to that person and after signing the Acknowledgment. The party opposing disclosure to that person shall have the burden of proving that such person should be restricted from access to confidential information.

4. Persons receiving confidential information shall use reasonable efforts to maintain the confidentiality of the information, including:

(A) Maintaining such information in a secure location to which persons not authorized to receive the information shall not have access;

(B) Otherwise using reasonable efforts to maintain the confidentiality of the information, which efforts shall be no less rigorous than those the recipient uses to maintain the confidentiality of information not received from the disclosing party;

(C) Ensuring that support personnel of the recipient who have access to the confidential information understand and abide by the obligation to maintain the confidentiality of information received that is designated as confidential; and

(D) Limiting the copying of confidential information to a reasonable number of copies needed for conduct of the proceeding and maintaining a record of the locations of such copies.

5. Persons and entities receiving confidential information shall use the following procedures to maintain the confidentiality of the information:

(A) Documents and Information Filed With the Board.

(i) A party may file documents or information with the Board along with a Motion to Seal. The Motion to Seal should provide a non-confidential description of the nature of the confidential information that is under seal, and set forth the reasons why the information is confidential and should not be made available to the public. A party may challenge the confidentiality of the information by opposing the Motion to Seal. The documents or information shall remain under seal unless the Board determines that some or all of it does not qualify for confidential treatment.

(ii) Where confidentiality is alleged as to some but not all of the information submitted to the Board, the submitting party shall file confidential and non-confidential versions of its submission, together with a Motion to Seal the confidential version setting forth the reasons why the information redacted from the non-confidential version is confidential and should not be made available to the public. A party may challenge the confidentiality of the information by opposing the Motion to Seal. The non-confidential version of the submission shall clearly indicate the locations of information that has been redacted. The confidential version of the submission shall be filed under seal. The redacted information shall remain under seal unless the Board determines that some or all of the redacted information does not qualify for confidential treatment.

(B) Documents and Information Exchanged Among the Parties. Documents (including deposition transcripts) and other information designated as confidential that are disclosed to another party during discovery or other proceedings before the Board shall be clearly marked as "PROTECTIVE ORDER MATERIAL" and shall be produced in a manner that maintains its confidentiality.

6. The access, disclosure, and use of the confidential information in the Co-Pending IPRs or the '015 Litigation is expressly permitted under this Protective Order, provided that such material is designated as AEO under the protective order in the '015 Litigation (Dkt. 118) and as confidential Protective Order Material under the protective orders in the Co-Pending IPRs, and such material is accessed, disclosed, and used as permitted by the protective orders in said proceedings. The confidential information shall be used solely for the above-captioned inter partes review, the Co-Pending IPRs, the '015 Litigation, and any related appeals.

7~~6~~. Within 60 calendar days after the final disposition of this action, including the exhaustion of all appeals and motions, each party receiving confidential information must return, or certify the destruction of, all copies of the confidential information to the producing party.

~~STANDARD~~ ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FOR ACCESS TO PROTECTIVE ORDER MATERIAL

Case No.: IPR2024-00004
U.S. Patent No. 11,491,835

~~Standard~~ Acknowledgment for Access to Protective Order Material

I _____, affirm that I have read the Protective Order; that I will abide by its terms; that I will use the confidential information only in connection with this proceeding, IPR2023-01161, and IPR2024-00098 ("the Co-Pending IPRs"), and the district court case Nuhn Industries Ltd. v. Bazooka Farmstar, LLC, Case No. 3:22-cv-00015 (S.D. Iowa) ("the '015 Litigation"), and for no other purpose; that I will only allow access to support staff who are reasonably necessary to assist me in this proceeding, the Co-Pending IPRs, and the '015 Litigation; that prior to any disclosure to such support staff I informed or will inform them of the requirements of the Protective Order; that I am personally responsible for the requirements of the terms of the Protective Order and I agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the Office and the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia for purposes of enforcing the terms of the Protective Order and providing remedies for its breach.
