Curriculum Vitae

Professional History

Gleason IP, a division of Gleason & Associates, Inc. – Managing Director 2007 to Present

Mr. Masztak is a managing director who specializes in project management and financial and economic analysis in intellectual property matters.

Mr. Masztak's experience in intellectual property engagements includes analyzing and quantifying damages in both patent infringement and other intellectual property matters. Mr. Masztak has extensive experience in developing and supporting claims for lost profits and reasonable royalties; evaluating secondary indicia of nonobviousness, including drivers of commercial success and nexus; performing analysis of irreparable harm in preliminary injunction and temporary restraining order hearings; and critiquing damages analyses of other experts. Mr. Masztak also has experience in determining the potential exposure for clients with products that are potentially at risk of infringing another entity's intellectual property. In addition, Mr. Masztak has considerable expertise in reviewing license agreements and analyzing royalty streams. Mr. Masztak's experience spans numerous industries, including pharmaceuticals and life sciences, manufacturing, electronic arts, retail, oil and gas, coal, utilities, hospitality, and others.

Mr. Masztak has more than fifteen years of experience in providing a full range of accounting, consulting, and economic services in the areas of intellectual property, fraud and forensic investigations, litigation support, valuations, and financial reorganization. Mr. Masztak has significant experience in class action litigation, including calculating the potential exposure for clients and using financial and economic analysis to assist in the class certification process. Mr. Masztak has analyzed and discounted lost profits calculations, performed business valuations, and has experience in fraud and forensic matters. Mr. Masztak's financial reorganization consulting experience includes preparation and evaluation of forecasts and budgets, identifying and implementing cost cutting measures to reduce expenses, and analysis of financial reports.

Deloitte & Touche LLP – Manager 2001 - 2007

As a Manager, Mr. Masztak worked with the Assurance and Enterprise Risk Services department. During this time Mr. Masztak served numerous clients in various industries ranging in size from small, privately held companies to large multi-national, Fortune 100 companies, with a range of revenues from $50 million to $10 billion.
