Certification of Translation Accuracy

From Swedish to English

As a duly authorized representative of SureTranslation, a professional translation services agency, I hereby confirm that the document has been translated by a proficient, qualified, and skilled professional translator, who is fluent in the specified language pair. To the best of my understanding, the translated text accurately represents the content, meaning, and style of the original text, and comprises a comprehensive and precise translation of the source document. This translation was not completed by a family member, friend, or business associate.

This certification is solely intended to attest to the accuracy of the translation. I do not provide any representations or assurances concerning the authenticity or content of the original document. Moreover, SureTranslation assumes no liability for the manner in which the translation is employed by the customer or any third party, including end-users of the translation.

A copy of the translation is appended to this certification.

Boat News

For 50 years, Boat News has been the large, comprehensive boating magazine in Sweden. The country's foremost boat writers and photographers conduct sharp tests of new and used motor and sailing boats, engines and accessories, report from the world's fairs, offer tips on smart solutions for boat owners, write about wonderful destinations and much more. Boat News is solid consumer journalism by boating people for boating people.

Åsa Bonthelius, editor-in-chief
