[1] Casper Conrad was selected as First Captain of the Class of 1894 on 14 Aug 1893. Several days later, he went off limits during a cadet visit to the Colombian Exposition in Chicago. He was subsequently court-martialed and dismissed from the Academy but permitted to return the next year and graduate with the Class of 1895. He was removed as First Captain on 24 Aug 1893 before the start of the Academic year. As a result, he was named but never actually served as First Captain.

[2] The Class of 1919 was considered part of the Class of Nov 1918 when they graduated originally on 1 Nov 1918. The Class of 1919 was called back after the Armistice. As the #1 man in his class, 2LT Horowitz served as First Captain.

[3] Claude M. McQuarrie relinquished command to concentrate on academics.

[4] First female First Captain.
