Dear John,

1) Just a reminder. The first response of this very very important patent Attorney Client
[redacted] is March 19.
Today is Feb 21.
I'm giving you a head's up, because as I mentioned above. I would like meet the examiner with you with prototypes for explanations. i assume it will take some lead time to arrange a face to face interview , and also give us enough time to allow for mutually agreeable scheduling.
I would appreciate it if we could start arranging a date, so I can rearrange my schedule around the examiner's.

(Other deadlines are staple gun March 20, and cervical disc April 5)

Attorney Client
[redacted]
[redacted] I would find it vital to meet with the examiner with you. I have prototypes of the boxes in question, as well as a prototype of the tool that I think will significantly help in the understanding.
Thus please let me know after reading this , if you have any questions. Also when you make an appointment with the examiner please advise me of the date , time and location.
Thanks,
Nate.
P.S. please acknowledge receipt of this e-mail.
