In light of the proceedings described below, and as requested by the parties, all due dates in the above-listed IPRs stand suspended. See, e.g., IPR2021-01134, Papers 28, 29, Exhibits 3006, 3008.¹ We now address Petitioner’s compelled motion seeking termination of the above-listed IPRs.

Shortly after institution of the above-listed IPRs, Nippon Shinyaku Co. Ltd. (“Nippon Shinyaku”) filed a complaint against Sarepta Therapeutics, Inc. (“Sarepta”) in the District of Delaware, alleging breach of contract and infringement of the patents challenged in the IPR petitions. Ex. 1103, 1. Nippon Shinyaku also moved for a preliminary injunction seeking to require Sarepta to withdraw its IPR petitions based on an alleged breach of a forum selection clause in the parties’ prior Mutual Confidentiality Agreement. Ex. 1103 at 1–2. The District of Delaware denied Nippon Shinyaku’s motion. Ex. 1102; Ex. 1103. Upon appeal, the Federal Circuit reversed the District Court’s decision and remanded for entry of a preliminary injunction. See Nippon Shinyaku Co., Ltd. v. Sarepta Therapeutics, Inc., 25 F.4th 998, 1005-06, 1009 (Fed. Cir. 2022). The District of Delaware then ordered Sarepta to withdraw the above-listed IPRs. Ex. 3010, 2–3.

In compliance with the District Court’s Order, Sarepta filed an authorized motion in each proceeding seeking withdrawal of its IPR
