Further, the Court takes under advisement the Motion to Dismiss for Failure to State a Claim and the Motion to Dismiss for Improper Venue as to defendant Keysight. The Court will issue a written opinion outlining the basis for its findings. The parties were directed to hold a Rule 16(b) Scheduling Conference at the conclusion of the hearing. Court adjourned. Nov. 15, 2017	52	ORDER entered and filed 11/15/17: The Court seeks to determine whether a Markman hearing is necessary, and, if so, what claims should be addressed at the hearing. Accordingly, the Court ORDERS the parties to confer prior to May 10, 2018 and submit a joint statement by May 17, 2018 at 5:00 p.m. to apprise the Court of the portions of the patents, if any, that are actually in dispute, as outlined. If the Court determines that a Markman hearing is desirable, it shall be scheduled on May 24, 2018 at 11:00 AM. (See Order for Specifics) (Signed by District Judge Henry C. Morgan, Jr. on 11/15/17). Nov. 15, 2017	53	OPINION & ORDER entered and filed 11/15/17 DENYING Defendants Keysight Technologies, Inc.'s ("Keysight's") and Ixia's (collectively, "Defendants") 20 Partial Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff Centripetal Networks, Inc.'s (Plaintiff's) or "Centripetal's") Complaint ("Motion"), as outlined. The Court heard argument on this Motion on November 14, 2017, and reserved ruling on the Motion. After further consideration, and for the reasons stated herein, the Court DENIES the Motion WITHOUT PREJUDICE to renewing the same arguments under Rule 12(c) after the Markman hearing or at the summary judgment stage. The Court also DENIES the request for judicial notice, Doc. 22, AS MOOT because the Court has not used any of those documents at this stage. (See Order and Foot Note for Specifics) (Signed by District Judge Henry C. Morgan, Jr. on 11/15/17). Copies provided as directed 11/15/17. (ecav,) (Entered: 11/15/2017)
Motion to Dismiss - Failure to State a Claim (FRCP 12(b)(6))		Denied without prejudice
Infringement Defenses L Invalidity L Unpatentable Subject Matter (35 USC § 101)		The court denied without prejudice defendants' motion to dismiss on the ground that two of plaintiff's network security patents encompassed unpatentable subject matter because claim construction had not occurred. "While there appears to be considerable merit to the arguments by Defendants in support of the instant Motion, the Court believes that these patents should be addressed either through a motion under Rule 12(c) after the Markman hearing or at the summary judgment stage. Although the Court is not granting the Motion at this time, the Court is concerned that these two patents are written very broadly, and it is further concerned that [one] Patent appears to require human intervention in the claims at the point where it could arguably technologically insert an automated step."
Motion to File Sur-Reply or Additional Brief		Denied as moot
Nov. 15, 2017	54	Order Rule 16(b) Scheduling Order - Pursuant to the Rule 16(b) Conference it is ordered that the Final Pretrial Conference is set for 9/20/2018 at 11:00 AM in Norfolk Courtroom 2; Markman Hearing is set for 5/24/2018 at 11:00 AM in Norfolk Courtroom 2; and the Jury Trial is set for 10/2/2018 at 10:00 AM in Norfolk Courtroom 2. Signed by District Judge Henry C. Morgan, Jr. on 11/15/17 and filed 11/15/17. (lbax,) (Entered: 11/15/2017)
Nov. 15, 2017	55	ORDER entered and filed 11/15/17: This matter came before the Court pursuant to Defendants Keysight Technologies, Inc.'s ("Keysight's") and Ixia's (collectively, "Defendants") Motion to Transfer Venue Under Section 1404(a) ("Motion to Transfer") and Keysight's Motion to Dismiss for Improper Venue ("Motion to Dismiss"). Docs. 23-24. The Court heard argument on these Motions on November 14, 2017, DENIED Defendant Ixia's Motion to Transfer, and reserved ruling on the Motion to Dismiss. After further consideration, and for the reasons stated herein, the Court DENIES Defendant Keysight's 23 Motion to Dismiss, and further explains its basis for DENYING Defendant Ixia's 24 Motion to Transfer. The Court also DENIES the request for judicial notice, Doc. 28 , AS MOOT, because the Court has not used any of those documents at this stage. (See Order and Foot Notes for Specifics) (Signed by District Judge Henry C. Morgan, Jr. on 11/15/17). Copies provided 11/16/17. (ecav,) (Entered: 11/16/2017)
Motion to Dismiss - Improper Venue (FRCP 12(b)(3))		Denied
		The court denied one defendant's motion to dismiss plaintiff's patent infringement action for improper venue because plaintiff sufficiently alleged that it committed acts of infringement in the district. "[I]t appears that [movant] may have a degree of control over [the other defendant] such that it would be responsible for [the other defendant's] actions as of the date of the holding company's acquisition of [the other defendant]. The Court believes that Plaintiff has established a prima facie basis for the Court having venue of [movant] through its holding company's acquisition of [the other defendant]. The Court also notes that the same law firm represents both Defendants, which suggests a commonality of interest in the proceedings."
Motion to Transfer (Other)		Denied
Venue L Venue Rules for Patent Infringement (TC Heartland) L Forum Selection Clause		The court denied defendant's motion to transfer on the basis of a forum selection clause in the parties' nondisclosure agreement because the clause was aimed at the subject matter of the NDA. "[T]he forum selection clause in this case, read in a vacuum, covers patent infringement litigation because it covers 'a dispute between the parties.' Nevertheless, the agreement itself states that it 'defines rights and obligations' regarding 'trade secrets and/or financial, proprietary, competitively sensitive, and/or market sensitive information.' The forum selection clause is also clearly aimed at the NDA's subject matter, starting with the phrase 'This Agreement.'"

		Motion to Quash (3rd Party Discovery)	Denied
		Disclosures & Discovery L Compelling Discovery L Timeliness of Discovery Dispute	The court denied a third party's motion to quash defendants' deposition and document subpoena because the motion was untimely and the discovery was relevant. "[Movant] has financial ties to [plaintiff] and holds a security interest in the patents that are allegedly being infringed upon. . . . By filing his Motion to Quash after the return date, [movant] failed to timely file his Motion to Quash and waived his objections. . . . [Movant] did not provide any good cause that would excuse his failure to file timely. . . . [T]he Court believes Defendants have a legitimate need to take [movant's] deposition and seek documents from him."

Invalidity L Anticipation (35 USC § 102) L Fact Issues as to Anticipation Invalidity L Prior Art L On Sale		The court denied defendants' motion for summary judgment that plaintiff's network security patents were invalid under the on-sale bar because there was a genuine dispute of material fact whether the products that were sold before the critical date were the same as the accused sold after. "[Plaintiff] argues that the [accused products] have changed over time and that the technology sold prior to the critical date has been updated to include new features. . . . Defendants argue that the Court should reject [plaintiff's] argument against summary judgment because, while Defendants concede that the products have changed, those changes have not been material. . . . The Court denies Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment because there is a genuine dispute of material fact as to whether the [products] possessed the infringing technology in 2009, which would make the 'on-sale' bar applicable."
Motion to Strike Evidence / Argument Supporting a Motion		Denied
Determining Special Meaning Of Claim Terms L Using Extrinsic Evidence L Expert Testimony Concerning Claim Construction Determining Special Meaning Of Claim Terms L Using Extrinsic Evidence L When Extrinsic Evidence May Be Considered		The court denied defendant's motion to strike the declaration of plaintiff's expert filed in support of claim construction briefing as improper. "Defendant argues that the Court should strike [the expert's] declaration in support of [plaintiff's] Claim Construction Briefs because the Court should only look to extrinsic evidence, such as [the expert's] testimony, where claim terms remain ambiguous after consulting evidence intrinsic to the patent. . . . The case law is clear that the court may 'receive extrinsic evidence in order to aid the court in coming to a correct conclusion as to the true meaning of the language employed in the patent.' Therefore, insofar as the Court determined that the meaning of a term was ambiguous after considering the evidence intrinsic to the patent, the Court permitted Plaintiff to offer the testimony of [its expert]."

↳ Objections

↳ Objection: Relevance

The court granted in part plaintiff's motion to compel the production of documents and depositions regarding defendant's unaccused products. "Defendant raises the point several times that [plaintiff] made representations that its amended complaint would not accuse new products; however, this argument misses the point. [Plaintiff] seeks discovery of [unaccused] technology because it recently learned of its infringing capacity in a deposition of [plaintiff's] CPO. . . . Plaintiff made diligent efforts to meet and confer with Defendant regarding the [unaccused] technology immediately after the deposition, and then filed the present Motion just over a week after the deposition. . . . [Plaintiff] is permitted to serve Defendants with requests for admissions to inquire whether the same technology utilized in Defendants' [accused] products is also utilized in Defendants' [unaccused] products. . . . Plaintiff is permitted to file requests for production of Defendants' source code."

↳ Objections

↳ Objection: Overbroad/Burdensome

The court granted plaintiff's motion for a protective order after defendants served 2,556 requests for admission within two weeks. "The parties have met and conferred, however Defendants were only willing to reduce its requests for admission down to 1,432 requests. . . . The sheer volume of Defendants' requests for admission warrants the Court's quashing of Defendants' request for admission."

The court denied plaintiff's motion for summary judgment that its network security patents were not invalid as anticipated by a previously undisclosed prior art product or a publication that was not publicly available before the critical date. "The Court denies Plaintiff's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment as to the late filing of the [prior art product] at this time, and further denies Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment with regard to [publication] because there is a genuine dispute as to the material fact of whether [defendants' expert] relied on [a pre- or post-critical date version]."

The court denied defendants' motion for judgment on the pleadings on the ground that two of plaintiff's network security patents encompassed unpatentable subject matter because there were genuine disputes of material fact regarding whether the asserted claims were directed toward an abstract idea or lacked an inventive concept. "Based on the pleadings, the Court is uncertain whether the [two] patents would survive under step 1 of [Alice Corp. Ptv. Ltd. v. CLS Bank Int'l. 134 S. Ct. 2347 (2014)]. Moreover, even if Plaintiff's patents did not survive step one of Alice, it appears to the Court at this time that Plaintiff has presented a genuine issue of material fact as to whether the Asserted Patents claim an inventive concept under step two of Alice."

The court denied defendants' motion in limine to exclude evidence that plaintiff's products practiced the patents-in-suit for failing to present sufficient expert evidence during discovery. "Defendants seek to prevent Plaintiff from offering evidence that any of its products . . . practice or practiced the asserted claims of the Asserted Patents because [plaintiff's] experts have failed to conduct an element-by-element analysis of how the products practice the Asserted Patents as they existed pre-suit . . . when Plaintiff alleges that Defendant 'copied' or used Plaintiff's products as a 'roadmap' . . .
