Dear Mr. Kellogg,

Thank you. We would like the refund to be for the debit card transaction, and we are happy to provide any information needed.

Further, after checking PTACTS, the system now shows IPR2023-00154 as filed, but there are some discrepancies. Within the case itself, it shows the petition and POA as having been filed 2 days ago (1/22/2023), rather than yesterday (1/23/2023):

Dear Board –

The undersigned attempted to submit the IPR Petition for IPR2023-00154 multiple times today, but P-TACTS is still showing it as unsubmitted. The Petition, POA, and all exhibits were uploaded to P-TACTS and sent by FedEx to USPTO counsel of-record. The undersigned attempted to pay fees first by debit card and then by deposit account.

The debit card payment was successful according to Chase Bank, but the undersigned is unable to find any record of it in P-TACTS after getting an error screen in Financial Manager.

The deposit account payment, on the other hand, is now showing in Financial Manager as Transaction ID E20231MI36451757 from deposit account DA062375 (screen capture included at the bottom of this email), but the system apparently failed to associate that payment with IPR2023-00154 in P-TACTS, which is still showing the petition as unsubmitted.

Pursuant to instructions displayed on the P-TACTS website in connection with the initial attempt at debit card payment, the IPR Petition, POA, and exhibits are all being emailed to Trials@uspto.gov and PTABP-TACTSAdmin@uspto.gov.

In view of that payment, the service of printed copies of all documents via FedEx, and Petitioner's email submission of the IPR Petition and POA attached to this email (and all exhibits via additional emails), Petitioner respectfully requests that the Petition be accorded a filing/submission date of today, January 23, 2023.

The undersigned will gladly provide whatever additional details/documentation the Board may desire in support of this request.

Respectfully,

Lu Ling
