2. Answer each request separately and as completely as possible. If a request cannot be answered completely, please answer it to the greatest extent possible.

3. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 36(a)(4), if you respond that you cannot admit or deny a request, your answer should include the specific reasons why you cannot admit or deny the matter.

4. If you cannot deny the entirety of any particular request, specify which component of the request you are denying, and admit the remainder of the request.

5. If You object to responding to a request on the basis of a claimed privilege, then with respect to each such request:

(a) State with specificity the reason or reasons for your objection and/or the nature of any privilege asserted;

(b) State the name and address of each person having knowledge of the factual basis, if any, upon which the privilege or other objection is asserted; and
