Counsel:

The Court requests that T-Mobile file a formal motion instead of using the discovery dispute process for this dispute. The Court will not be staying the proceedings in the above case. Thank you.

Good afternoon,

The parties in the above-listed case have reached an impasse on the issue below and request a ruling from the Court. The parties' competing positions are set forth in the attached document. The exhibits referenced therein are being submitted via separate link which will be received from the following email address:

TBervik@perkinscoie.com. Please let us know if the Court has any difficulty accessing. Some exhibits, including Exhibits A-1, A-2, B, D, E, G, H, K, L, and M, have been designated by the parties as containing confidential information and are therefore submitted under seal.

T-Mobile is available for a hearing on this issue, if the Court so desires. Given that both parties have designated information relating to this motion confidential, T-Mobile requests that any such hearing be conducted via the Court's confidential Zoom link.

Further, it is T-Mobile's understanding that Verizon Wireless, defendant in VoIP-Pal v. Verizon Communications (21-cv-672-ADA), will be submitting a similar motion in short order.

Respectfully,

Travis Underwood
Counsel for T-Mobile
