Please could you confirm whether we should proceed with the translation? Please could you also confirm whether we should prepare a standard certificate or whether you will be providing a specific certificate for Dr. Benyunes to sign?

Dear Sarika,

Thank you for your email. Please find Mr. Benyunes's comments below –

Yes, I'm happy to sign this declaration, though I think clause 3 of the declaration would be substantially more meaningful and accurate if it were rephrased broadly thus:

"I am competent to perform this translation because I am a native English speaker and have been performing translations for RWS since 1996. I have 26 years of experience as a translator, 23 years of which I have spent specializing in preparing translations in the pharmaceutical field and I have a MITI professional qualification in German-English translation with specialization in chemistry."

In response to specific client queries:

i) In my 26 years of experience as a full-time staff translator for RWS, of which 23 years were spent preparing translations for the pharmaceutical field, approximately 75% of these will have been German to English translations.

ii) My MITI qualification means that I am a Qualified Translator of the UK Institute of Translation and Interpreting and that I have successfully satisfied all their requirements for this qualification, including a peer-reviewed assessment of my work (for full details of what is involved in gaining this qualification, see here: <https://www.iti.org.uk/membership/individual-membership-categories/qualified-translator.html>).

I can confirm that we would be able to complete the translation within 1-2 working days from your confirmation to proceed and receipt of the updated declaration.

Could you please provide us with additional information on whether his 26 years of experience and 23 years of experience with preparing translations for the pharmaceutical field were German to English translations? Also, could you please provide me to more detail on what it means to have a MITI professional qualification? For example, is this a certificate of some type or a degree from a university? What does one go through to receive such qualification?

Also, could you please let me know the timeline by which we can expect a translation and executed declaration from Mr. Benyunes?

Dear Sarika,

I hope you are well. I have looped in my colleagues Liz and Andrea, who will support me in this matter going forward. Both are based in the UK and therefore an hour closer to your time zone than I am.

MOM_0006295

Regarding your questions below, David was Rebecca's supervisor in the past, and at the time of the first correspondence (2017) he was a Senior Translator. The reason David reviewed the original translation was that at the time, Rebecca was unavailable but the review could not wait. As Rebecca's supervisor and English native speaker, with qualifications in German, David had a phone call with Martina Tyreus Hufnagel and he was asked on the phone to review a certain passage as your colleagues believed RWS omitted some words from our translation. He subsequently signed the declaration.

David feels that due to his involvement he should not be re-translating the text. If you would like a new translation and certification, we will be happy to provide one – but it would need to be done by an independent translator (not David or Rebecca) and reviewed by an independent revisor. Please note that additional costs will apply for this service.

Please let me know how you would like to proceed.

Kind regards,
Andrea

Thank you Andrea. We would also like to know what David Sherman's relationship is to Amy Tinworth, the original translator. For example, was David Amy's supervisor at any time or a supervisor to her supervisor? Essentially, we would like to know why David reviewed Amy's original declaration and provided the correction relating to "licking" that he did to make her translation more accurate.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or if you wish to discuss.

Hi Sarika,

MOM_0006296

Thank you for the additional clarification. We think David's original declaration covered the last part - which German words correspond to the word "lick" and why we have agreed a translation should be inserted.

We would therefore suggest you send over a draft of the new declaration so we can escalate and check this internally. As detailed below, David is a native English speaker who studied German. He has a BSc (Hons) in German from Aston University and an IINC in Mechanical Engineering. He has been working actively as a patent translator from 2009 to 2019. David is now the UK Head of Translation Operations. He oversees and works closely with our translators and has a wide range of experience.

Hi Andrea,

I have received additional instruction on what we are looking for. Instead of the below, the team would like Mr. Sherman to sign an updated declaration discussing his qualifications for translating, attesting to the accuracy of Ms. Tinsworth's translation if it is accurate, and explaining why he added the reference to "licking" to Ms. Tinsworth's translation. Basically, we want his declaration to clearly identify which German words correspond to the word "lick" in English and therefore make the inclusion of this word more accurate.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Happy to discuss this in more detail at any time tomorrow if needed.

Thank you!

Hi Andrea,

Instead of having David verify that the translation of Amy Tinsworth is correct, we would like him to prepare a separate full translation of the Harder reference section 15.9, similar to what Amy did but this time performed by David. Essentially, we want David to be the declarant for his own translation instead of him approving someone else's translation. Is that possible? Or is there somebody else who can provide a new declaration and translation? We want the person who provides the declaration and translation to be the same person.

MOM_0006297

Please feel free to contact me with any questions. 817-374-2946

Thank you!

Hi Sarina,

David is a native English speaker who studied German.

Could you clarify what you mean with a full translation of harder so I can clarify with David?

I'm about to go onto a plane so I won't be available again today.

Kind regards,
Andrea

I have a couple more questions before we can decide how to proceed. Is David a native English speaker who studied German? We need to establish his qualifications for both languages.

Also, if David is not translating anymore, will he be able to provide us with a full translation of harder and not just verify Amy's translation?
We may need a new certified translation to fix these issues.

If you could please let me know as soon as possible, I would appreciate it.

Thank you!

Good morning Sarika,

I have spoken to David this morning, his qualifications are as follows:

BSc (Hons) in German from Aston University and an HNC in Mechanical Engineering. He has been working actively as a patent translator from 2009 to 2019 – when he signed the original declaration he was still translating actively.

David is now the UK Head of Translation Operations and does not translate anymore. He oversees and works closely with our translators and has a wide range of experience.

He would be able to check the linguistic accuracy of Becky's translation and he has already checked that the addition of the term "to be licked off" was required (as per point 3 on the certificate).

Please let me know how you would like to proceed.

Kind regards,
Andrea

Hi Andrea,

Thank you for reaching out. The reference that we need a declaration of accuracy prepared for is Chapter 15.9 of Wochenbettbetreuung in der Klinik und zu Hause (Childbed care in clinic and at home). David Joshua Sherman at RWS prepared this declaration for us in the past, which I have attached to this email (see attachment at page 1). We were wondering if Mr. Sherman could prepare a similar declaration for us with an updated date and signature, and if so, if you could please provide us with a quote for this service.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. I am available for a call at any time on Friday 2/16 between 9:00a.m. and 7:00p.m. Central Time.

Dear Sarika,

Many thanks for your email and enquiry,
which has been forwarded to me. My name is Andrea Turner and I am the Key Account
Manager for Fish & Richardson at RWS IP Services. I have been working very closely with the Fish & Richardson office in Munich for the last few years.

Could I please ask, do you have a reference/invoice number of the book we translated in 2017, and would you also be able to send a copy of the exhibit that requires translation and certification now?
We would also appreciate if you could confirm the required language combination for the exhibit and your preferred deadline.

I will be happy to join you in a call, I have good availability tomorrow and Monday. If you let you know a date and time that is convenient for you, I will be happy to send a MS Teams invitation.

Kind regards,
Andrea

Hi David,

I am an attorney at Fish & Richardson P.C.. I am reaching out regarding your availability to certify a translation of a German Book that you translated for us in a prior matter in 2017. We now need a similar certification prepared for an exhibit in an IPR matter.

Please let me know if you are interested and time to briefly speak later this week.
