Ready, set, feed!

When introducing baby to solids, you can't just use any old spoon. Babies have sweet little mouths and sensitive gums, and they need extra care in order to taste all the exciting new flavors you're giving them. Munchkin's Soft Tip Infant Spoons were designed specifically to help you with baby's first feedings. The soft tips and rounded shapes are gentle on gums, and the shallow spoon bowl makes it easy for your little novice to eat. The spoons were made with mom in mind, too - the special handle is ergonomically designed for a comfortable hold and just the right length to reach the bottom of baby food jars. Ready, set, feed with ease!

- Rounded, soft spoon bowls are extremely gentle on baby's gums

★★★★★ Awesome price and quality

These cute little rainbow spoons are a great value. They are easy to clean and great for first puree feedings. The plastic does stain, I have a few carrot smudged spoons that the orange won't clean off completely but for the price it's worth it.

Used these to give my bearded dragon Bean pureed baby food. I like that these had the soft tips on them because as soon as I stuck pureed pumpkin in front of him, he attacked it and really liked it lol the size is perfect also. Material seems durable.

★★★★★ Great spoons

These spoons were so great when my 6 month old started eating baby food. The handles were long enough so I didn't get my fingers gross from the puree food. The way the spoon is designed is easy for new babies to get the food off it. No issues with these at all! They washed up great and I actually held onto these and used them for my second kid. Great product

★★★★★ Just right spoon size

Reviewed in the United States on January 23, 2024

Size: 12 Count | Pattern Name: SPOON | Verified Purchase

It tried so many kinds of baby spoons. The tradition with a metal handle were okay but didn't hold food well as they had no depth to the bowl of the spoon so it was hard to get yogurt and purées food from plate to mouth. Other baby spoons the bowl of the spoon was too wide to fit in a baby's mouth well. These are get that the bowl has some depth and yet isn't too wide. Now that we are a little older it hold one to tow pasta shells well. Also dishwasher friendly. Only negative is the handle is a little too long for him to self feed with.

★★★★★ Can't say anything bad about these.

I got a 12 pack and that was perfect. These are sturdy and you can toss them in the dishwasher. I do wish they were a little bit flatter but they'll be perfect four soups when baby is a little older.

2 packs of baby spoons for such a reasonable price! My son keeps losing his so I figured this would be more than enough for him lol

I love that these come in multi colored and it will be easy for him to feed himself. Thanks!!

★★★★☆ Good spoonsat good price.

Reviewed in the United States on August 27, 2018

I wanted to get some plastic spoons for our daughter and decided to buy these ones; owing to their good rating. We decided to get 12 of them and it was a great decision.

These spoons are a bit sturdy and heavy towards the tip (so that they don't fall out of bowl easily). They have a soft tip and the right shape for the kid to take the food from. And they are super easy to clean and highly durable. And now our daughter gets to play with lots of them and that too in bright colors.

I would definitely recommend them if you kid has started eating solid food!!!

Me encantaron estas cucharas para mi bebe, ya habia adquirido las de white hot de la misma marca, pero supongo que por el mismo white hot son mas delicadas, ya que en las primeras lavadas se empezaron a notar como rayadas, tipo desgaste, y en cambio estas que no lo tienen no he tenido ese problema, ambas me gustan, pero prefiero estas cucharas, se ven mas duraderas y ergonomicas son bonitas, no muy suaves y se manchan muy fácil, le di de comer a mi bebé papilla de zanahoria y se mancharon de anaranjado, las lavo y lavo y no se les quita las manchas. :(
