

ticker noun

tick·er 'ti-kər

: something that ticks or produces a ticking sound: such as a : WATCH

b (1) : a telegraphic receiving instrument that automatically prints off information (such as stock quotations or news) on a paper ribbon

(2) : a graphic on which information is scrolled across the top or bottom of a television or computer screen

c slang : HEART

