The Fight Continues

On Friday, a lower court ruled in favor of four major publishing companies that aim to prevent our library lending—but the fight isn't over. We will keep defending the rights of all libraries, and we ask you to stand with us.

The Internet Archive (which runs this project) is a crucial resource, but fewer than 1 in 1000 of our patrons donate. We're powered by contributions averaging $25.51. If you find our library useful, please pitch in.
