The image shows the UCL Search Compass interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the UCL logo and the tagline "Understanding the past, challenging the present, shaping the future". The navigation bar includes links for Home, Admission, Research, Departments, People, Information, A to Z, and Search. Below the navigation bar, there is a sidebar with buttons for Help and About Compass. The main content area is titled "Search UCL Web Servers". It contains a text box for entering search terms, a Search button, and links for Hints... and Advanced Search... Below these links, there is a paragraph stating that the Compass interface requires a JavaScript-enabled Web Browser and that if JavaScript cannot be enabled, users may use a different interface instead.
