JUDGE MAYBERRY: Good afternoon. This is Judge Mayberry of the Patent Trials Appeal Board. With me on the line is Judges Daniels and Cherry.

This call concerns IPR2023-00954, also 0095 -- sorry, 00995 and 00996, each styled Sony Interactive Entertainment LLC v Quantum Imaging LLC.

We would like to start with appearances. Who do we have on the line for Petitioner?

MR. ARJOMAND: Good afternoon, Your Honor Mehran Arjomand of Morrison & Foerster for Petitioner. With me is Bryan Blumenkopf of Morrison & Foerster as well for Petitioner.

JUDGE MAYBERRY: All right. Thank you. And did Petitioner provide for a court reporter for this call?

MR. ARJOMAND: No. We did not, Your Honor.

JUDGE MAYBERRY: All right. Thank you. And who do we have on the line for Patent Owner?

1 MR. TUTTLE: For Patent owner you have 2 Kevin Tuttle and Homayoon Rafatijo. Also 3 listening in is Mark Brockhaus and Patrick Dunn.
4 And Patent Owner has provided a court reporter for 5 this teleconference.

6 JUDGE MAYBERRY: All right. Thank you,
7 Counsel.

8 We'll ask you to file the transcript of 9 this call in each of the three proceedings as soon 10 as it is practical.

11 So with that, Counsel for Petitioner
12 requested this call to address the availability of 13 Patent Owner's declarant, Dr. Medvidovic for a 14 deposition. We'll hear from Petitioner first, 15 then allow Patent Owner to respond. We'll then 16 return to Petitioner for a brief reply to that 17 response.

18 So Petitioner, you may begin when ready.

19 MR. ARJOMAND: Thank you, Your Honor. So
20 I want to thank you for having set up this 21 conference call on short notice. Petitioner has 22 tried for two weeks to meet and confer on Dr.

1 Medvidovic's deposition without success.

2 The correspondence began on May 8th when 3 we, Morrison & Foerster, requested to substitute 4 in as Petitioner's counsel. On May 10th, we 5 requested availability of Dr. Medvidovic for the 6 week of May 27th. That began a lengthy back and 7 forth between Petitioner's counsel and Patent
8 Owner's counsel.

9 I believe that the essence of the dispute 10 is that Petitioner is requesting two days of 11 in-person cross-examination of Dr. Medvidovic and 12 Patent Owner has refused to provide Dr. Medvidovic 13 for two days of in-person cross-examination.

14 Until just last week, Patent Owner had 15 only offered one day of deposition, and that one 16 day was by Zoom. Patent -- Petitioner couldn't 17 agree to that and we made that clear in the 18 correspondence.

19 There is typically no live testimony in 20 IPR proceedings, so in-person cross-examination is 21 really the only opportunity for Petitioner to 22 cross-examine Dr. Medvidovic in person.

1 Furthermore, as Your Honor indicated, there are 2 three pending IPRs in this matter so we are 3 entitled to three depositions. But Petitioner
4 is -- has been willing to compromise to just two 5 days of deposition in view of the fact that the 6 '941 and the '165 patents in the '995 and '996
7 proceedings are related.

8 We had thought we had reached agreement, 9 Your Honors, and -- and had hoped to obviate to 10 need for this call on May 22nd. Patent Owner's 11 counsel had provided finally an offer in which 12 they had made Dr. Medvidovic available for two 13 days of in-person deposition in Kansas City on 14 June 22nd -- on June 21st and June 22nd. And 15 because that was after Due Date 2, they also 16 offered an extension on Due Date 2 by three weeks
17 and Due Date 3 by five weeks.

18 We -- on that same day, on May 22nd
19 accepted the offer. We were willing to depose 20 Dr. Medvidovic in Kansas City for two days in 21 person. And the only issue that we raised was 22 that we felt that the extension period should be

1 equalized to four weeks for Due Date 2 and four 2 weeks for Due Date 3.

3 However, the next day on May 23rd, Patent 4 Owner's counsel withdrew the offer saying that 5 Dr. Medvidovic is no longer available on June 20th 6 and 21st and asked that -- basically revised 7 their -- their previous offer. They had, again,
8 indicated that they would only make Dr. Medvidovic
9 available for 8.5 hours. He would be available
10 for five and a half hours of in-person deposition
11 on the 29th and then -- then another three hours
12 on Friday -- or on the 30th by Zoom.

13 Now, we couldn't agree to that because 14 that doesn't provide what we had asked, not even 15 close to what we had requested. It's not even one 16 full day of in-person cross-examination. And so 17 we reached out to the Board for this call.

18 I think that pretty much summarizes the 19 back and forth between the parties. There are 20 three points that I'd just like to make before I 21 turn over to Your Honors.

22 First, I think Patent Owner may argue that

1 we had delayed in requesting Dr. Medvidovic's 2 deposition. As you know, we subbed in as 3 Petitioner's counsel on May 8th. That's when we 4 requested from Patent Owner's counsel they opposed
5 our substitution; they did not. And on May 10th, 6 we requested Dr. Medvidovic's deposition for this 7 week.

8 In addition, in the correspondence between 9 the parties --

10 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Excuse me, Counsel --

11 MR. ARJOMAND: Yes.

12 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Excuse me, Counsel.

13 Sorry to interrupt you. Judge Mayberry here.

14 Did previous counsel reach out to Patent 15 Owner at all to try to start planning for the 16 deposition of Patent Owner's declarant?

17 MR. ARJOMAND: I do not know.

18 JUDGE MAYBERRY: That you know of?

19 MR. ARJOMAND: Not that I know of.

20 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Okay. Thank you.

21 MR. ARJOMAND: And then, Your Honor, you
22 know, as the correspondence shows, we responded

1 promptly to every e-mail from Patent Owner's 2 counsel. There was never a delay at our end in 3 responding to Patent Owner's counsel. Whereas, we 4 had to remind Patent Owner's counsel on at least 5 one occasion to respond to our e-mails.

6 Secondly, I think Patent Owner may also 7 indicate that there was a back-and-forth exchange 8 in Mr. Crane's deposition regarding the length of 9 what is -- basically the length of what is a 10 proper deposition in this proceeding. And in that 11 exchange, Petitioner's former counsel indicated a 12 limitation of only seven hours for 13 cross-examination.

14 Now, mind you, that's less than what
15 Petitioner -- that's less than what Patent Owner 16 is currently offering at 5.5 in-person. But if 17 you take a look at that transcript, and that's 18 Exhibit 2009 in the 94 -- '954 proceeding, on 19 page 280, Patent Owner's counsel indicates that 20 they're entitled to two days of in-person 21 deposition for 14 hours.

22 So it's their position I think in that

1 deposition that is consistent with our position,
2 that is Petitioner's position here.

3 And I think one other final point that I'd 4 like to raise is that if you take a look at 5 Mr. Crane's deposition, both days, they resulted 6 in the depositions being suspended and calls to 7 the Board. And we think that having the 8 deposition proceed now on May 29th, which is 9 tomorrow, and then on May 30th, which is the day 10 that, my understanding, is Dr. Medvidovic is 11 planning to go on international travel, runs the 12 risk that the deposition might not be completed
13 because there could be, given the past 14 proceedings, there could be an issue with the -- 15 deposition being suspended.

16 That's why we were open to accepting the 17 offer of having the deposition after 18 Dr. Medvidovic returns from his international 19 travel on June 13th, having it in person. And we 20 would be open to -- at that point to -- if there's 21 any issues in that deposition for calling the 22 Board or -- or doing what is necessary to try to

1 resolve the disputes. But trying to do that 2 before, you know, hours before Dr. Medvidovic gets 3 on a plane I think is -- is going to be difficult.

4 So we think our position is -- our 5 position throughout the meet-and-confer has been 6 consistent and reasonable. And we'd ask the Board 7 to respectfully rule in our favor, that we should 8 have two days of in-person deposition of 9 Dr. Medvidovic after his return from India on 10 June 13th.

11 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Okay. Thank you,
12 Counsel. Counsel for Patent Owner.

13 MR. TUTTLE: Yes. This is Kevin Tuttle,
14 counsel for Patent Owner. Mr. Rafatijo will be 15 speaking on our behalf.

16 MR. RAFATIJO: Good afternoon, Your 17 Honors.

18 I'd like to start by pointing out the fact 19 that the Petitioner's conduct throughout these 20 proceeding has unfairly prejudiced Patent Owner.
21 And in this specific incident, you heard from the 22 Petitioner's counsel, it is designed to compel an

1 extension and delay the resolution of these 2 proceeding.

3 Now, the -- the counsel on the other side
4 mentioned that they had to remind us to get back 5 to them. But I'll portray the whole picture for 6 your, Your Honors. Back when we requested the 7 availability of their expert for the Petition,
8 first we requested one week after the discovery
9 open. The discovery opened for us in 10 January 12th. We sent an e-mail to them on 11 January 19th. We didn't hear from --

12 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Excuse me, Counsel.

13 MR. RAFATIJO: -- until -- yes?

14 JUDGE MAYBERRY: This is Judge Mayberry.
15 Are you making the -- taking the position that 16 conduct with respect to taking the deposition of 17 Petitioner's declarant should impact how you
18 respond to request to provide your declarant's
19 deposition?

20 MR. RAFATIJO: No, not at all.

21 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Because I really don't 22 see that that's relevant.

1 MR. RAFATIJO: Sure. Your Honor, I
2 proceed. All I'm just trying to portray to you
3 the we -- we only responded to them after four 4 days. It took them over 20 days to respond to us.
5 So and we needed to get back to Dr. Medvidovic.
6 He's the chair of the department and is sitting of 7 head -- had a conference overseas scheduled from 8 October 2023. And that's why it took us four days
9 to get back to the patent owner -- the petitioner.
10 And -- and you know, we have reached out 11 to them promptly after the discovery opened. But 12 you were asking the other side if the previous 13 counsel ever reach out to us within the seven-week 14 period they have after discovery open, and the 15 answer is no, Your Honor. The very first time 16 Petitioner contacted us requesting for the 17 availability of Dr. Medvidovic was May 10. And 18 even on that e-mail, they did not ask for an 19 in-person deposition. The request for in-person 20 deposition came only on May 16.
21 And they -- and they required, they demand 22 us to work them on -- in the week of May 27, which

1 as we know, Your Honor, May 27th was a national 2 holiday. So essentially, they give us only four 3 days to provide availability for Dr. Medvidovic 4 and -- which is just the week before the close of 5 discovery on June 3rd.

6 So and we -- we worked with them. We 7 offered a lot of compromises. And eventually we 8 said, look, if you want Dr. Medvidovic's 9 deposition over two days and if you want to have 10 him in person, we are willing to come to LA where 11 counsel is residing, where Dr. Medvidovic is 12 residing to have the in-person deposition take 13 place tomorrow on May 29 beginning at 1:00 p.m.
14 for five and a half hours on the record. And then 15 the remainder can proceed on the next day, but 16 remotely, just because Dr. Medvidovic has a flight 17 at 9:30 p.m.

18 And you know, the problem is LA is very 19 busy. And we don't want Dr. Medvidovic sitting on 20 pins and needles all the time during the 21 deposition thinking whether or not he's going to 22 catch the flight. And what we offered is exactly

1 what we get from them for our -- for their expert.

2 They offered their expert ten-and-a-half
3 hours with the second day being conducted remotely
4 for the convenience of the expert. And honestly,
5 Your Honor, we didn't think that that dispute 6 would merit Your Honor's time and wasting the 7 judicial resources, so we took the offer. We 8 extended the -- the courtesy of, you know,
9 honoring the expert's desire to have the second 10 day being conducted remotely.

11 And Your Honor, this is the position that 12 Petitioner's counsel all along took with respect
13 to these depositions. At the time of Mr. Crane's 14 deposition, there were four IPRs pending before
15 Your Honor. And for four IPRs, and I'm quoting 16 right now from Petitioner's counsel, you have 17 seven hours which is typical standard procedure
18 and process within an IPR proceeding. And seven 19 hours adequate time as for standard proceeding -- 20 it is standard proceeding, specifically because 21 according to the deposition counsel, these are -- 22 patents are on the same topic.

1 And then only after we said we going to go
2 to Your Honor for additional time, they agreed to 3 grant us an additional three-and-a-half hours only 4 remotely. And the counsel wrote to us, this 5 additional time would be the total for all IPR
6 proceeding.

7 So as we are doing just simple math here, 8 like, if your position at the time was 9 ten-and-a-half hours is sufficient for four 10 declarations, four patents, four IPR, then 11 eight-and-a-half hours is more than adequate for 12 three declarations, three patents, three IPRs. So 13 what happened that a sudden that you don't -- you 14 can't live with the same time that you extended to 15 us.

16 And as the issue of, you know -- you know
17 that the -- the deposition were suspended, I need 18 to address that, why the depositions were 19 suspended.

20 Well, we came before Your Honors the 21 months --

22 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Well, sir --

1 MR. RAFATIJO: Yes.

2 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Excuse me, this is Judge
3 Mayberry -- before you get into that, I guess I'm 4 much more interested in getting to some type of 5 resolution. So let me see if I understand.

6 I have a question for you first, and that 7 is: After your declarant returns from his trip to 8 India, what, do you know his availability? So his 9 availability in the next, you know, month, I -- 10 considering that, you know, for half of it he'll 11 be gone? Does he have availability for two days 12 of deposition?

13 MR. RAFATIJO: Well, Your Honor, our 14 expert indicated initially that he had 15 availability. He was not aware of his faculty 16 retreat meeting that was scheduled for the 17 university. And the rest of June, as I spoke with 18 him yesterday, he said the rest of June is 19 complete booked.

20 So the two days that he thought he could 21 make it happen and he offered initially, how he's 22 saying to us that he has faculty retreat and he

1 cannot do deposition because he was not aware of 2 the Juneteenth holiday on June 19. So he offered
3 June 20 and June 21st, and he's no longer
4 available because he was not aware of at the time
5 as he communicated to us, because he was not aware 6 of at that time the faculty retreat meeting.

7 And then when he comes back, he needs to 8 adjust for the time travel -- I mean, the jet lag
9 and the time changes. So you know, and you know,
10 all along, Petitioner's position was that we want 11 your availability for the week of May 27. And we 12 are offering that availability right now, Your 13 Honor.

14 We are saying, you have five-and-a-half
15 hours in-person deposition and let's proceed
16 remotely the very next day. And I am actually 17 flying tonight to meet the expert and the 18 Petitioner's counsel tomorrow. So you know, if 19 he -- you know, I understand the counsel you 20 indicate -- but all -- Petitioner has all the 21 right to substitute counsel, but that substitution 22 should not prejudice Patent Owner by forcing us to

1 grant an extension for a month or more.

2 And one --

3 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Couple things. Excuse
4 me, Counsel.

5 Judge Mayberry, couple things. I also 6 want to clear up because I've heard a couple of 7 different numbers thrown around. Is it the case
8 that because this is a pending flight on Friday 9 evening, that all total, your declarant would be 10 available for eight-and-a-half hours of deposition 11 and it's your position that that should be 12 adequately given that we're only talking about 13 three instead of four proceedings in -- and 14 Mr. Crane testified for ten-and-a-half covering 15 four proceedings?

16 Did I get that right?

17 MR. RAFATIJO: Correct. Except that 18 Dr. Medvidovic's flight is on May 30 at 9:40, not 19 Friday. On Thursday, actually. 9:40 p.m. from 20 LAX airport. And we are only -- you know, we 21 don't want him traveling from home to some law 22 office, our law office, in Santa Monica, and he

1 always in the rush of whether or not he's going to 2 get back to home and from home to the airport.
3 And we would like to have the time for redirect
4 and recross.

5 And to your second point, Your Honor,
6 you're correct. When Petitioner's counsel limited 7 us to ten-and-a-half hours, they were four 8 proceedings before Your Honor and now there are 9 only three. So we are hoping that 10 eight-and-a-half hours more than adequate given 11 the proportionality to ten-and-half hours for four 12 IPRs. So probably we know eight hours for three 13 IPRs and we added an extra 30 minutes for 14 petitioner to have an efficient -- an effective
15 cross-examination.

16 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Okay. Thank you,
17 Counsel. And we're going to turn back to 18 Petitioner and get a response.

19 And one thing I'm interested to hear in 20 your reply, Petitioner, is why it's limited to 21 availability this week in your request.

22 MR. ARJOMAND: I'm sorry, Your Honor.

1 Just to follow up on what you're interested in 2 hearing from us, as opposed to -- are you -- are 3 you asking why May 27th as opposed to a week
4 earlier or two weeks earlier?

5 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Yeah. My understanding
6 is you had request and correct me if I'm wrong, 7 please, but my understanding from the 8 back-and-forth that I heard here is that you 9 requested specifically availability of the 10 declarant this week.

11 MR. ARJOMAND: That's right. We -- I'm 12 just looking at the calendar here. On May 10th we 13 had requested for availability of Dr. Medvidovic 14 on the week of May 27th. And we didn't ask for 15 the previous week of May 20th just because we 16 needed some time to get up to speed and be ready 17 for the deposition.

18 We had no idea, Your Honors, until I guess 19 on May 14th that Dr. Medvidovic was going to 20 travel on -- on May 31st to June 13th. That's 21 when Patent Owner's counsel informed us. And so 22 we -- we tried to -- we tried to actually work

1 with them to -- Patent Owner's counsel that is, to 2 have two days of in-person deposition on the 29th
3 of May and also on the 30th of May. That was what 4 we tried to work out with them.

5 But they insisted that they wanted to have 6 it on Zoom instead of in person. And they 7 insisted, again, on the fact that Dr. Medvidovic 8 was traveling internationally.

9 And I think that the offer that Patent
10 Owner's counsel is currently making is really, 11 one, not an offer, because it's only 5.5 hours of 12 in-person cross which is less than even what 13 Patent Owner had with respect to Mr. Crane; but 14 even more importantly as you just heard from 15 Patent owner's counsel, May 30th would be the next 16 day.

17 You know, LA is busy. They're planning on 18 potentially recross -- or I should say redirect.
19 We might have recross. And given the conduct of 20 the past two depositions with Mr. Crane, there's a 21 chance that this could get disbanded. So it just 22 doesn't seem like it's feasible or practical to

1 have the deposition go on May 30th given, you
2 know, the history here.

3 So that's why we think, you know, a
4 deposition after Dr. Medvidovic has returned to 5 the US would make sense.

6 And we had accepted that offer, Your 7 Honors. You saw that in the correspondence
8 between the parties. And that's the reason we 9 forwarded the correspondence to you, because the 10 summary of what happened back and forth between 11 the parties didn't include that offer which I 12 think is very, very important.

13 Finally, with regard to Dr. Medvidovic's 14 availability on -- in June, we're -- we 15 understand, you know, that the need to work with 16 Patent Owner's counsel to try to resolve these 17 issues and not burden the Court. We would make 18 ourselves available to depose Dr. Medvidovic in 19 person on a weekend, if necessary.

20 We don't -- we don't want to delay this 21 proceeding. We want to get -- you know, get our 22 reapplications in and -- and have the proceeding reach

1 a final written decision. So we're open to any 2 kind of resolution that grants us our -- our, you
3 know, our request for two days of in-person cross.
4 Once that's given to us, we're open to working 5 with Patent Owner's counsel on -- on an 6 appropriate time and manner for the deposition.

7 MR. RAFATIJO: Your Honor --

8 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Counsel --

9 MR. RAFATIJO: -- if I may.

10 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Just a second, Counsel.

11 Counsel, this is Judge Mayberry.

12 There's -- the one thing I want to, again,
13 understand, Mr. Crane, he gave ten-and-a-half 14 hours of testimony with -- with some of it being 15 over Zoom or some other type of media, not in 16 person; is that correct?

17 MR. ARJOMAND: That's my understanding,
18 Your Honor, based on the transcripts. He gave -- 19 I think the first day was a full day that went all 20 the way to 7:00 o'clock at night before there was 21 dispute between parties.

22 And then the second day, which was not

1 the -- the following day, but some time later
2 was -- was by Zoom and it was only at -- a handful 3 of hours. I think total was over ten hours.

4 JUDGE MAYBERRY: And counsel, you -- you
5 talked about two days of in-person depositions.
6 Are you counting a day at seven hours of 7 deposition time?

8 MR. ARJOMAND: That's right. Seven 9 hours --

10 JUDGE MAYBERRY: So you're --

11 MR. ARJOMAND: -- seven hours of cross.

12 JUDGE MAYBERRY: You're looking for 13 14 hours of deposition time?

14 MR. ARJOMAND: Yes. And that's consistent
15 with Patent Owner's counsel's position in the 16 Crane deposition. This is, again, Exhibit 2009 on 17 page --

18 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Excuse me, Counsel.

19 MR. ARJOMAND: Yes.

20 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Excuse me, Counsel. It's 21 not, though, what actually happened with doc -- 22 Mr. Cranes's deposition, correct?

1 MR. ARJOMAND: That's right. That's 2 Patent Owner's counsel thought that they -- 3 indicated that they believed that they were 4 entitled to 14 hours.

5 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Okay. Thank you.

6 If I understood, Patent Owner's counsel
7 wanted to make a remark and we will go ahead and 8 indulge. So please, go ahead.

9 MR. RAFATIJO: Just two brief remarks.
10 First, the counsel for the second time mentioned a 11 suspension. It's -- I'd just like to put it 12 before the Court. Because the last time it was 13 suspended, we were on the right and we were trying 14 to introduce evidence day after the -- the 15 deadline for curing the objection to evidence and 16 cross --

17 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Excuse me, Counsel.

18 MR. RAFATIJO: Yes.

19 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Yeah. We don't really 20 need to hear about that.

21 MR. RAFATIJO: Sure. Sure.

22 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Really want to solve this

1 issue.

2 MR. RAFATIJO: Sure. And one last
3 point -- one last point, Your Honor. Our -- 4 Patent Owner counsel indicated during the 5 transcript that if this was a district court, we 6 would have -- we would be entitled to 14 hours,
7 but we agreed to ten-and-a-half hours for four 8 IPR.

9 So their position all along was that seven 10 hours is enough for four IPRs and then they gave 11 us the extra three-and-a-half hours. They said 12 that's all we can give you at this point. And the 13 three-and-a-half hours are conducted remotely.

14 So we are -- we would love to offer
15 Dr. Medvidovic in person for two days, but he has 16 meetings all along today and tomorrow morning.
17 He's willing to travel to our office. We worked 18 with him to move his stuff around and his 19 schedule. He's going to travel to our office for 20 five-and-a-half hours at least. And then the 21 remainder is going to go for the second day, just 22 for his convenience to ensure that he's going to

1 catch his flight. We are ready to go there. If 2 the Petitioner is ready, we are going to meet them
3 tomorrow there.

4 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Okay. Thank you,
5 Counsel.

6 And so one thing I do want to, you know,
7 mention to counsel for Patent Owner, and I'm going 8 to say -- start it by saying, I understand this 9 situation is not normal. We have had a -- a 10 change of Petitioner's counsel which is on 11 Petitioner. But Patent Owner does have the 12 responsibility to offer their declarant for 13 deposition.

14 And so -- so really, that's going to 15 happen. And if that has to happen after the 16 current schedule, then the schedule is going to be 17 modified. So I just wanted to that -- I wanted to 18 say that, make sure everybody understands that -- 19 seems like both parties have some -- some -- I
20 don't want to say blame, but some responsibility 21 in leading to where we're at this call right now.
22 And I think that we need to resolve it together

1 now.

2 And so I am going to give some last words
3 to each party before we put you on mute so that we 4 can converse among ourselves, so one more word
5 from Patent Owner's counsel, to the extent you 6 have anything else to say.

7 MR. RAFATIJO: Sure. Your Honor, we 8 are -- we know we understand our obligation to 9 offer. That's why we've worked with them. We try 10 everything possibly we could to offer
11 Dr. Medvidovic in person at least for -- in some 12 capacity. The counsel is residing in LA, the 13 other side. Dr. Medvidovic is residing in LA.
14 And I am going to fly to LA to have this done and 15 over with tomorrow and the day after.

16 And if, however, Your Honor, decides to 17 extend, you know -- extend the deadline and you 18 think that the proper course of action, two 19 things, you know, I'd like to remind you: The 20 other side did not extend the same courtesy to us 21 even though it took them five -- four weeks to get 22 back to us with availability. But we -- we

1 understand. And if that's your position, Your 2 Honor, we going to work with Dr. Medvidovic see if 3 he can over the weekend maybe after he returned if 4 he doesn't have meeting or anything or if he can 5 work with Dr. Medvidovic over the weekend.

6 The only thing is we would like to know if 7 Petitioner is willing to waive the seven-days 8 requirement prior to -- the seven-day gap that 9 is -- that is built in the rules between the end 10 of discovery and the due date so we -- we can at 11 least move Due Date Two by only one week. And 12 hoping that we can offer Dr. Medvidovic over the 13 week and after he returns from India.

14 If Petitioner's counsel might be ready for 15 that compromise, we going to talk to 16 Dr. Medvidovic to see if he's available. But the 17 last -- yesterday when I talked to him, Your 18 Honor, he said he had a faculty retreat. He has 19 an important position in the University of 20 Southern California. And he was very skeptical of 21 having any openings in the month of June. And I 22 see what we can do about that.

1 JUDGE MAYBERRY: All right. Thank you,
2 Counsel. And counsel for Petitioner, something 3 brief?

4 MR. ARJOMAND: Your Honor, I -- I would 5 just say that we appreciate the Board's 6 willingness to get on this call on short notice.
7 We recognize that we burdened the Board with what 8 appears to be yet another deposition-related 9 issue.

10 We've tried for two weeks to -- to resolve
11 this without reaching out to the Board. And you 12 know, the -- the reality is that we were only 13 given this LA in-person deposition on Thursday.
14 Up to that point, Patent Owner's counsel has 15 repeatedly indicated that Dr. Medvidovic was only 16 available by Zoom on May 30 or, at most, on May 17 29th and May 30.

18 So we would be happy to work with Patent
19 Owner's counsel if Dr. Medvidovic is available
20 after his return. We already accepted one offer 21 that reduced our time for cross-examination in the 22 spirit of compromise. So if they're willing to

1 provide an offer that is in line with, you know,
2 our -- our desire to depose Dr. Medvidovic in 3 person, we would be open to considering it and 4 trying to resolve this without the 5 Board's -- without burdening the Board further.

6 JUDGE MAYBERRY: All right. Thank you,
7 counsel. We're going to put this call on hold and 8 we are going to talk amongst ourselves and we'll 9 be back to you as soon as we can. Thank you.

10 (Whereupon a break was had.)

11 JUDGE MAYBERRY: The panel is back and we 12 want to thank you for your patience. The first 13 thing, we'd like to confirm that the parties are 14 still on the line.

15 Do we have counsel for Petitioner?

16 MR. ARJOMAND: Yes. We're here.

17 JUDGE MAYBERRY: And counsel for Patent
18 Owner?

19 MR. RAFATIJO: Yes, Your Honor.

20 JUDGE MAYBERRY: And we did just want to 21 confirm one thing just because of all the stuff 22 that went back and forth.

1 But there is still a possibility of some 2 type of deposition this week in LA of Patent
3 Owner's declarant, correct?

4 MR. RAFATIJO: Absolutely, Your Honor.

5 MR. ARJOMAND: Correct.

6 JUDGE MAYBERRY: And Petitioner's counsel,
7 that's your understanding, there -- there is at 8 least an opportunity for that to happen?

9 MR. ARJOMAND: Yes. My understanding is 10 that they're making him available tomorrow at 1:00
11 o'clock for five hours -- five-and-a-half hours.

12 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Okay. Thank you,
13 Counsels.

14 Okay. So what we have decided is that 15 Patent Owner is to make Dr. Medvidovic available 16 for ten-and-a-half hours, with at least half of 17 that in person. If that can be made to happen 18 this week, that would be great. If not, then that 19 has to happen in June upon his return.

20 We're going to leave that up to the 21 parties to figure out how to make that happen,
22 including if it happens in June the required

1 changes in the scheduling order.

2 Now, again, we do expect the parties to be 3 able to work this out together. Should that not 4 able to happen, then we'll step in and -- and make 5 it happen. Typically, when that happens, though, 6 people aren't happy.

7 So any final questions? We'll go to 8 Petitioner.

9 MR. ARJOMAND: I don't believe we have any 10 further questions, Your Honor.

11 JUDGE MAYBERRY: And Patent Owner?

12 MR. RAFATIJO: Correct, Your Honor. Just 13 one clarification. So if we -- if offered 14 Dr. Medvidovic tomorrow and the day after for 15 ten-and-a-half hours, then there would be no need 16 for a June deposition, correct? Is that your 17 ruling, Your Honor?

18 JUDGE MAYBERRY: That's correct.

19 MR. RAFATIJO: Okay. Thank you.

20 MR. ARJOMAND: Your Honor, let me just 21 follow up on that though. I mean, I just want to 22 be clear, given the way the correspondence has

1 gone for the past two weeks.

2 When Patent Owner said that they'll offer
3 Dr. Medvidovic for ten-and-a-half hours in person, 4 if that offer on the second day requires us to 5 start at 7:00 in the morning, or something like 6 that, to make time for Dr. Medvidovic -- for, you 7 know, redirect, recross, and for Dr. Medvidovic to 8 catch his plane and so he's not nervous, then I
9 don't think that would constitute a good-faith 10 offer.

11 So I want that -- that point to be made
12 clear, that it's not simply an offer of 10.5 hours
13 of in-person deposition. It has to be 10.5 hours 14 of, you know, reasonable time and manner, if that 15 makes sense.

16 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Counsel -- counsel, this 17 is Judge Mayberry. We do respect that.
18 Unfortunately, we're not really in that situation
19 where we can have a perfect world.

20 Again, as I said, both parties kind of 21 have a role they played that's led up to this,
22 including Petitioner getting new counsel at a

1 later date.

2 So because of that, that is one of the 3 reasons where we're here right now. So to the 4 extent that Patent Owner can make their declarant
5 available this week for ten-and-a-half hours, I
6 would expect Petitioner to make every possible 7 effort to get that deposition taken care of.

8 MR. RAFATIJO: Your Honor, one question
9 from Patent Owner.

10 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Yes, please.

11 MR. RAFATIJO: Sure. So I -- I think 12 earlier you said that Patent Owner Should make 13 half of that ten-and-a-half hours in person and 14 the other half can be remote, or all of that 15 should be in person?

16 JUDGE MAYBERRY: No. At least half of it
17 needs to be in person.

18 MR. RAFATIJO: At least half of it. Thank 19 you, Your Honor.

20 MR. ARJOMAND: I'm sorry, Your Honor.
21 My -- my understanding was that it was 22 ten-and-a-half hours in person. Did I -- I wrote

1 that down in my note.

2 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Well, I -- I apologize,
3 Counsel. I -- I probably didn't speak clearly
4 enough. What I did say, and if I didn't say it, I 5 will say it again, that is the deposition that -- 6 Patent Owner needs to make their declarant
7 available for ten-and-a-half hours, at least half 8 of that needs to be in person.

9 MR. ARJOMAND: Okay. All right. I'm 10 sorry, Your Honor, I think I misheard you. I 11 thought initially you said there would be 12 ten-and-a-half hours in person. And now that 13 you've clarified that, I appreciate it.

14 One point of housekeeping, Your Honor. In 15 the event that we proceed with the deposition
16 tomorrow, we have not provided -- we haven't filed
17 a notice of deposition. We, of course, will do 18 that today. But that would be within -- or under 19 the time typically allowed for a notice of 20 deposition.

21 Is it possible that that notice rule be 22 waived in this situation?

1 JUDGE MAYBERRY: I am looking towards -- 2 to my colleagues just to confirm.

3 Yeah. We would waive that requirement.
4 So to the extent, once you guys get it worked out,
5 you could file the notice even if it's not -- not 6 within the appropriate timing as set in our rule.

7 MR. ARJOMAND: Okay. Thank you. And --

8 JUDGE MAYBERRY: And again --

9 MR. ARJOMAND: I don't have any further 10 questions.

11 JUDGE MAYBERRY: Okay. Thank you. And 12 I'm sorry to keep on going back and forth.

13 I speak for the Board, but I did want to 14 confirm that Patent Owner would have no issue
15 with -- with the notice being less than the time 16 specified in the rules.

17 MR. RAFATIJO: No, Your Honor. We waive
18 that requirement.

19 JUDGE MAYBERRY: All right. Great. Thank 20 you.

21 With that, I think we are adjourned. I do
22 want to remind counsel for Patent Owner that as

1 soon as practical, to file the transcript from 2 this call in all three procedures. Thank you all.
