JOINT MOTION TO CONSOLIDATE ACTIONS

Plaintiff, College Products, Inc. (“College Products”) and Defendant Intirion Corporation (“Intirion”) jointly move the Court to i) consolidate this action into Intirion’s transfer action, Intirion Corporation v. College Products, Case No. 5:23-cv-04023-KEM (“Transfer Action”) with Intirion listed as Plaintiff, ii) in consolidating this action into the Transfer Action, enter College Products’ Answer and Counterclaims into the Transfer Action, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1,¹ and iii) administratively close this action without prejudice for the following reasons:

1. On January 5, 2023, College Products filed its Complaint for Declaratory Judgment in the above captioned case. Dkt. 1. College Products amended its complaint on April 25, 2023.

2. Prior to that time, on May 6, 2022, Intirion filed suit against College Products in the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, at Case No. 6:22-cv-00459-ADA (the “Texas Action”). On April 10, 2023, the Honorable Alan Albright of the Waco Division transferred the Texas Action to this Court. Memorandum Opinion & Order on Defendant’s Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff’s Complaint for Improper Venue under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(3), Intirion Corp.

¹ Intirion reserves the right to move to dismiss and/or strike College Products’ Defenses and Counterclaims, including pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6).

v. College Products, Inc., No. 6:22-cv-00459-ADA (W.D. Tex. Sept. 27, 2022), ECF No. 33 (sealed), ECF No. 35 (redacted).

3. Pursuant to Rule 42(a), a court may consolidate separate actions provided that they “involve a common question of law or fact.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 42(a); see also Enter. Bank v. Saettele, 21 F.3d 233, 235 (8th Cir. 1994). “District courts enjoy substantial discretion in deciding whether and to what extent to consolidate cases.” Hall v. Hall, 138 S. Ct. 1118, 1131 (2018). Where there is a common issue of law or fact, Rule 42(a) permits consolidation “as a matter of convenience and economy in administration.” Ackelson v. Aquawood, LLC, No. 4:19-cv-00135, 2020 WL 1809708, at *2 (S.D. Iowa Feb. 3, 2020) (quoting Enterprise Bank v. Saettele, 21 F.3d 233, 235 (8th Cir. 1994) (internal quotations omitted)).

4. Both this action and the Transfer Action involve common parties, common issues of fact and law, and common counsel. For example, both this action and the Transfer Action claims related to infringement/non-infringement of various claims in U.S. Patent Nos. 9,657,974, 9,791,206, and 10,495,374. The parties therefore request the Court consolidate the two actions. See e.g., Ackelson, 2020 WL 1809708, at *2.

5. Consolidation would benefit judicial economy in administration as well as the parties.

6. For the foregoing reasons, College Products and Intirion respectfully jointly request the Court consolidate this action into the Transfer Action, pursuant to the proposed order attached hereto.
