Honorable Board,

Thank you for listing the deficiencies in the Petitioner's pro hac vice motion to add Mr. Hanewicz as back up counsel. Today, we filed updated mandatory notices and powers of attorney, as well as updated declarations (Ex. 1013 in IPR2023-01163 and Ex. 1016 in IPR2023-01164 and 01165).

Regarding item (1) in your email, Mr. Hanewicz has not applied to appear pro hac vice before the Office in the last three years. We have updated the declarations to affirmatively state lack of such appearances. If the Board requires a different statement, we will be happy to revise the declarations to comply with the Board's guidance.

We appreciate your attention and time in granting this motion.

Best,
Babak Tehranchi
Lead Counsel for Petitioner

Subject: IPR2023-01163, -1164, -1165 - Motion for Pro Hac Vice Admission - (Hanewicz)

Counsel,

From the Board –

Petitioner filed a motion for pro hac vice admission of Christopher G. Hanewicz in the above-referenced proceedings (Paper 21). The following deficiencies with the motion have been identified:

1. Mr. Hanewicz's declaration (Ex. 1013) is defective because it does not contain a statement listing all other proceedings before the Office for which the individual has applied to appear pro hac vice in the last three years.

2. Petitioner's Power of Attorney (Paper 1) does not identify Mr. Hanewicz in accordance with 37 C.F.R. 42.10(b).
3. Petitioner's Mandatory Notices (Paper 2, 92) do not identify Mr. Hanewicz as back-up counsel in accordance with 37 C.F.R. 42.8(b)(3).

Petitioner is authorized to correct these deficiencies within 10 business days of this email by filing, in each proceeding: an updated declaration (as Exhibit 1013); an updated power of attorney (as a paper); and updated mandatory notices (as a paper). If Petitioner files the updated declaration, the Board will expunge the original and corrected declarations that are currently in the files to ensure a clear record.
