The purpose of this requirement is to have representatives present who can settle the case during the course of the conference without consulting a superior.

Counsel for a government entity may be excused from this requirement so long as the government attorney who participates in the Settlement Conference (1) has primary responsibility for handling the case; and (2) may negotiate settlement offers that the attorney is willing to recommend to the government official having ultimate settlement authority.

¹ The attendance requirement includes parties that are indemnified by others. Any deviation from this Order requires prior Court approval.

² Full authority to settle means that the individuals at the Settlement Conference are authorized to fully explore settlement options and to agree at that time to any settlement terms acceptable to the parties. Heileman Brewing Co., Inc. v. Joseph Oat Corp., 871 F.2d 648, 653 (7th Cir. 1989). The person needs to have "unfettered discretion and authority" to change the settlement position of a party. Pitman v. Brinker Int'l, Inc., 216 F.R.D. 481, 485-486 (D. Ariz. 2003). One of the purposes of requiring a person with unlimited settlement authority to attend the conference is that the person's view of the case may be altered during the face-to-face conference. Pitman, 216 F.R.D. at 486. Limited or sum certain authority is not adequate. Nick v. Morgan's Foods, Inc., 270 F.3d 590, 595-597 (8th Cir. 2001).

³ If you are unfamiliar with Zoom: Zoom is available on computers through a download on the Zoom website (<https://zoom.us/meetings>) or on mobile devices through the installation of a free app. Joining a Zoom conference does not require creating a Zoom account, but it does require downloading the .exe file (if using a computer) or the app (if using a mobile device). Participants are encouraged to create an account, install Zoom and

1 Settlement Conference.⁴ Prior to the start of the Settlement Conference, the Court will
 2 email counsel an invitation with the Zoom meeting hyperlink and password to participate
 3 in the Settlement Conference.⁵

4 Each participant should plan to join the Zoom video conference at least five minutes
 5 before the start of the Settlement Conference to ensure that the conference begins on time.
 6 Zoom's functionalities will allow the Court to conduct the MSC as it ordinarily would
 7 conduct an in-person one. The Court will divide participants into separate, confidential
 8 sessions, which Zoom calls Breakout Rooms.⁶ In a Breakout Room, the Court will be able 9 to confidentially and individually communicate with participants. Breakout Rooms will 10 also allow parties and counsel to communicate confidentially outside the presence of the 11 Court.

12 Counsel are responsible for ensuring their clients are able to participate in the MSC.
 13 All participants must display the same level of professionalism and attention during the 14 MSC as if they were attending in person (e.g., not be driving while speaking to the Court, 15 or otherwise distracted). Participants are encouraged to use laptops or desktop computers
 16 for the video conference, if possible, as mobile devices often offer inferior performance.
 17 Because Zoom may quickly deplete the battery of a participant's device, each participant

 22 creating a Zoom account. For help getting started with Zoom, visit:
<https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/categories/200101697-Getting-Started>.

23 ⁴ Counsel may request the MSC be converted to an in-person appearance informally
 24 through a joint call or email to the Court's chambers (efile butcher@casd.uscourts.gov).
 Counsel must meet and confer prior to making such a request.

25 ⁵ Participants who do not have Zoom already installed on their device when they click
 26 on the Zoom meeting hyperlink will be prompted to download and install Zoom before 27 proceeding.

2 during the video conference.

3 26. No later than December 4, 2023, counsel for each party must send an e-mail
4 to the Court at efile_butcher@casd.uscourts.gov containing the following:

6 parties and party representatives, and claims adjusters;
- 7 b. An e-mail address for each attorney participant to receive the Zoom video 8 conference invitation;
- 9 c. A telephone number where each attorney participant may be reached so that,
10 if technical difficulties arise, the Court will be in a position to proceed 11 telephonically instead of by video conference; and
- 12 d. A Confidential Settlement Conference Statement.⁷ All confidential
13 Settlement Conference Statements must include:
 - 14 i. the party's position on liability and damages supported by relevant 15 facts, a discussion of the significant facts established during discovery, 16 and legal analysis with citations to controlling legal authority. The 17 parties are also encouraged to attach a chronology setting forth a 18 timeline of the events at issue. If submitted, the chronology should be 19 in a chart or column format with the column headings "DATE" and 20 "EVENT." The chronology is not counted against the page limits;
 - 21 ii. for plaintiff(s), a specific and current settlement demand addressing all 22 relief sought and an itemization of the damages sought, and, for 23 defendant(s), a specific and current offer and the bases for that offer.
24 (Note: a general statement that a party will "negotiate in good faith," 25 "offer a nominal cash sum," or "be prepared to make a demand or offer
26 at the conference" is not a specific demand or offer. If a specific offer
27 or demand cannot be made at the MSC, state the reasons why and 28 explain what additional information is required to make a settlement demand or offer.);

27 ⁷ The Court does not require MSC Statements to be served on other parties; however,
28 the parties may elect to share statements at their discretion. These statements are not to be filed on the CM/ECF system.

- iii. a brief description of any previous settlement negotiations or mediations; and
