DMN 2018 Award Winners

Abby Miller
January 25, 2019

From the landmark work executed last year, we received submissions for digital campaigns, leading tech companies and stand-out individuals, and passed them along to our panel of expert, independent judges.

One judge, Jordan Adams, commented on the “hugely impressive number of nominations and some real quality in there,” and it was gratifying to see so many finalists show up in New York to witness the results.
