Importance: High

Hi Michael,

my lawyer Benjamin Eismann forwarded me your email.

Please first look at the attachments to see how Buergofol is trying to intimidate me.

Today I was asked to sign a declaration that puts words in my mouth. But everything I read there is mainly wrong.

Michael, before we communicate in more detail here, please ask Omega Liner whether I can also offer inner and outer films to them.
Well, I am also a business man now.
At what price would attractive offers be possible?

If Omega were to infringe my US patent US 8,361,580 B2, as Buergofol regularly claims, I would not be happy and would not accept it. This is, if Omega Liner used an orange contact transparent film as described in the US patent.

But if Omega were to enter into a business relationship with me and my company, there would be no patent infringement.

Because Buergofol is already planning the next patent infringement lawsuit against Omega, and I am supposed and invited to be involved.

What do you say to that?

Please see my comments below marked yellow concerning the questions in your very first e-mail.

(P.S.: You can copy the text in the pdf-files and translate it from German to English unsing for example Google translate.

For example:
Our client would like to point out that, if necessary, she [Buergogol] will enforce her existing duty to cooperate in court and of course reserves the right to claim damages in the event of the US patent being destroyed. Kind regards, Dr. Christina Koppe-Zagouras, Attorney at Law

Best regards,
Kurt

Subject: Scheduling Deposition of Dr. Stark in United States (Buergofol v. Omega)

Dear Benjamin,

I am contacting you regarding scheduling the deposition of Dr. Stark in the United States in connection with the lawsuit between Buergofol and Omega, which would also include producing any documents relevant to the lawsuit that Dr. Stark possesses. Kurt: I need more infos. Which lawsuit? Is it the same topic as mentioned in the attached "Declaration" 2024-06-17?

Omega will reimburse Dr. Stark for all reasonable expenses incurred traveling to the United States (e.g., travel expenses, lodging, etc.). Omega will also provide reasonable compensation to Dr. Stark at a reasonable hourly rate agreed to by Dr. Stark and Omega for his time preparing for and testifying at the deposition. Kurt: ok

Please let me know if Dr. Stark is agreeable to appearing for a deposition in this case,Kurt: yes his availability to travel to the United States for the deposition Kurt: yes

, and his current hourly rate. Kurt: I would say EUR 300 per hour. Also for my attorney for receiving and answering your e-mails. Ok?

Additionally, there is a protective order in place issued by the Court which I have attached to this email. The protective order permits the disclosure during the deposition of information that Buergofol may consider confidential corporate information but includes specific methods for handling the confidential information. Kurt: This is very important, as Buergofol and their lawyers already try to intimidate me.

I look forward to your response.

Thanks,

Michael Neustel
