Michael,

As agreed, to streamline the issues, Cobblestone elects to assert only the '347, '888, and '361 patents, and Defendants/Intervenors elect to assert only the prior art references associated with the '347, '888, and '361 patents. The parties will not brief the '196 patent terms for Markman.

Best,
Jon

Jon – It's a little difficult to come up with a concrete proposal without knowing the patent Cobblestone intends to drop, but Defendants will drop all prior art references associated with the dropped patent. If Plaintiff agrees to narrow claims of the still asserted patents, we will consider narrowing prior art depending on the nature and scope of Cobblestone's narrowing.

Thanks,
Michael Deane
