

Bradley Jarrett

Associate | bjarrett@mckoolsmith.com

Dallas T: 214.978.4216

Bradley Jarrett is an associate in McKool Smith's Dallas office. His practice focuses on complex commercial litigation. Before joining the firm, Bradley clerked for the Honorable William F. Jung of the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida and the Honorable Richard B. Orfinger of the Florida Fifth District Court of Appeal. He also interned with the Antitrust Division and Commercial Litigation Branch of the U.S. Department of Justice.

While attending law school, Bradley served as the executive editor for the University of Miami Inter-American Law Review. Bradley was also a member of the Charles C. Papy, Jr. Moot Court Board and finished as a semi-finalist in the national Duberstein Bankruptcy Moot Court Competition.

Before attending law school, Bradley served as an Explosive Ordnance Disposal Officer in the United States Army. During his military career, Bradley deployed to Iraq and Afghanistan and received various awards, including the Bronze Star Medal.

300 Crescent Court
Suite 1200
Dallas, TX 75201

Education

J.D., magna cum laude, University of Miami School of Law, 2018

- Miami Scholar (full-tuition merit scholarship)
- Executive Editor, University of Miami Inter-American Law Review
- Highest Scoring Student in Legal Communication and Research Skills and Antitrust Law

B.A., cum laude, Political Science: International and Military Affairs, The Citadel, 2008

Clerkships

The Honorable William F. Jung, U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida

The Honorable Richard B. Orfinger, The Florida Fifth District Court of Appeal

Court Admissions

State of Florida

State of Texas