Subject: IPR2024-00341 and IPR2024-00342 – Request for Authorization to File an Updated Stipulation and a Pre-Institution Reply

Your Honors,

Petitioner Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. (“Samsung”) requests authorization to file an updated stipulation in the IPR2024-00341 and IPR2024-00342 proceedings. Additionally, in the IPR2024-00342 proceeding, Petitioners Samsung and Google LLC (“Google”) request authorization to file a pre-institution reply to address the arguments raised in the Patent Owner Preliminary Response.

With respect to the stipulation, Samsung intends to submit as an exhibit (in both proceedings) a Sotera stipulation letter that it will serve on Patent Owner. In each letter that would be included in the exhibit, Samsung will indicate its agreement not to pursue—in the district court litigation or any parallel proceeding—any grounds raised in the underlying IPR, any grounds raised within Samsung’s invalidity contentions that were raised or could have been raised in that IPR, or any grounds Samsung could have reasonably raised before the PTAB, if that IPR proceeding is instituted. Samsung seeks authorization to file the such a Sotera stipulation letter as an exhibit in each of these proceedings.

Patent Owner does not oppose this request to file a Sotera stipulation in the above-referenced proceedings.

With respect to the requested pre-institution reply, Petitioners Samsung and Google seek a five-page brief to address the incorrect characterizations in the POPR, Patent Owner’s disregard of Google’s status as a separate Petitioner that has not been sued in any parallel proceeding, and the limited burden from addressing the art and grounds presented in both petitions.

Patent Owner opposes this request for a pre-institution reply in IPR2024-00342 and believes it is improperly argumentative. According to Patent Owner, Petitioners don’t identify any misrepresentations in the 10-page POPR, and the Board is capable of evaluating the arguments therein (limited to Petitioners’ notice ranking petitions) without the need for supplemental briefing.

If a call would be helpful to discuss these requests further, the parties are available at the following days/times (all times Eastern):

1. Mon 6/10: 1 pm or later
2. Tue 6/11: 1 to 3 pm
3. Wed 6/12: 1 to 2 pm or 3 to 5 pm

Best,
