At the oral hearing, Petitioner intends to discuss the issues raised in the parties' filings in the ongoing IPR proceeding, including but not limited to, the following items:

- 2) Issues addressed by Patent Owner in its Response to Petitioner's Petition and its Sur-Reply.
- 3) Issues raised by either party in any motion to exclude, motion to strike, request for oral argument, or request for pre-hearing conference.

4) Issues that may be raised by Patent Owner before the Board at the oral hearing.

5) Other issues related to patentability that the Board deems necessary to address before issuing a final written decision.

Lastly, Petitioner may use the email procedure described on the PTAB Hearing Schedules webpage to request that employees and/or other outside counsel be provided with access to view or listen to the oral hearing.
