Cool and comfortable

I fell in love with this pillow after a night in my mom's guest room, so i got one for myself! It is just right for me as a side sleeper. It is supportive without being too hard. No more neck cramps or crushed ears.

The best pillow for all positions!

Reviewed in the United States on January 10, 2022

First of all, other reviewers said this was a fake Columbia pillow because it has a zipper. This pillow is a second generation meaning the pillows now include a zipper so you can take the case off and wash it, I prefer to have it this way to keep the pillow fresh. Second, the cooling effect is nice but only lasts a few minutes, I have not come across a pillow that stays cool all night regardless of what what the manufacturers say. Now this pillow does however seem to not be as warm as other's. Now for the most important thing at least for me is comfort, I suffer from chronic pain and I struggle with sleep, so having a good pillow is important to me, I've tried so many pillows over the last three year's and all different brands and price's. I am a combination sleeper so I don't fit into any certain pillow category, the pillows I've tried are to firm or to soft, they are like a brick or the pillow flattens out. The Columbia pillow however has just the right sink, it gives me support when I sleep on my side but when I lay on my stomach and want to hug the pillow it squishes perfectly. For me at least my pillow search is over.

Chillier Pillow!

Reviewed in the United States on June 29, 2022

Size: Queen Verified Purchase

I live in AZ, hate hot nights and have tried many different pillows. They all claim to be the “coolest pillow on the market” but most of them have failed at that. This pillow is nice, soft, thinner which I prefer and it’s nice and cool when I lay down. It does get warmer as the night goes on but I don’t think there is a pillow out there that won’t! My dog chewed 2 of these up (she must like them too lol) so have now purchased 4 of these as I keep one in the Travel Trailer for trips.

Not really a King size pillow

A nice pillow, but it's not very wide at only 30" when most King pillows are around 35" or more.

Best there is !

Reviewed in the United States on April 16, 2024

So I am someone needs just the right pillow to sleep well and avoid neck aches. I am writing this review to say that this pillow (for me) is by far the best ever. This is my second one, my last one I used for 6 years, until it wore down. It is expensive, so I tried at least 10 other pillows to try and save money....I should have just spent this money without trying the other 10. This pillow is amazing, perfect support, but sinks perfectly with my head. I wake up with no pain. The cooling side is very noticeable for the first hour, like its cold on your head, but that does wear off. I dont use this pillow for solely the coolness, it is the comfort. You have to try it !!!!

Not the same pillow as I bought 7 years ago

Reviewed in the United States on October 25, 2024

Size: Queen Verified Purchase

This pillow is not the same as the one I bought 7 years ago. It is almost an inch thinner, the texture is no where near the same, it is stiffer and much less comfortable. I should have listened to the reviews but I had hope that it was the same pillow I have loved for years. The old one was the most comfortable pillow I have ever owned and I still have it. I have severe neck and spinal fusions and diseases and this had been the only pillow I get a good nights sleep on. I have spent 1,000 dollars on expensive pillows meant for people like me and always go back to my old reliable. So, disappointed! Why would you cheap out on a best seller?

Doesn't stay cool

Reviewed in the United States on January 14, 2024

The pillow is very comfortable and good height. However, I bought for the cooling and this pillow is NOT great in that aspect. Stays "cool" for less than 10 minutes and then its gets hotter than...well lets say it like sleeping on wool.
