Product Description

Size: Queen

Our cooling gel pillow has inspired technologies to promote a cool, comfortable sleep. The advanced gel blend is cold to the touch. The gel dissipates across the surface and throughout the interior. The pin core ventilation keeps air circulating to further prevent the build up of heat and moisture. It is the perfect combination of comfort and coolness. Removable, washable bamboo charcoal cover is included.

One side of the pillow is coated with the PCM Gel on the surface, while the underside isn't. This allows for a cooler side to use for the summer and a less cool side for the winter. For the most cooling sensation, remove the bamboo cover and only use a pillowcase.

Nice Pillow Overall But Mine Has Issues

By Crissi \(Fraz Zled Momma to Many\) on September 18, 2015

First and foremost, overall I really like this pillow. I do not sleep on it, though, instead it stays on my couch and I use it for lumbar support there.

The Good:

~It is very soft and easily pliable.

Some Cooling

This is a decent second pillow but I do not like it for a pillow itself (I have to put another pillow under it to raise it up some). Read more

Love this pillow!

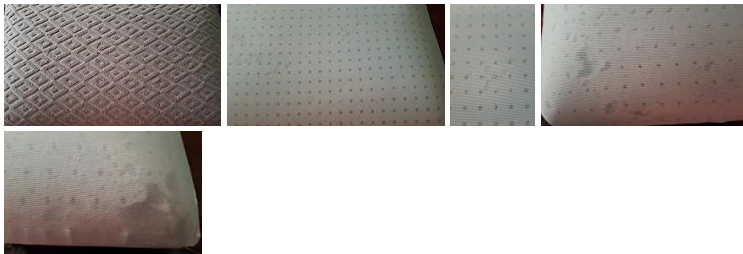

Love love this pillow. Very comfortable and just the right size. Not to high.

~It does indeed feel ventilated and doesn't feel hot like a lot memory foam products I've used.
 ~It comes with a comfortable, decorative bamboo cover that is easy to take off and wash.
 ~It offers gentle support.
 ~I can bunch it behind my back and get comfortable.

The Not So Good (based on my personal preferences):

~It is not the aqua pillow pictured on this listing.
 ~Mine has multiple chunks out of the foam, like it was a seconds. This part really bugs me, because at $40, you expect a perfect pillow.
 ~The support is inadequate for me as a head pillow, as it gives very easily and doesn't feel that different from laying flat. It is easily squished flat.
 ~The inner cover is not removable for washing, it is completely sealed around the pillow.

Like I said, overall I am still pleased with the pillow. I did receive it at a discount in consideration of a fair and honest review, which I have provided. In the interest of full disclosure, I would have requested a return had a paid full price based on all of the points above. I've tried to get pictures of the apparent chunks that are simply missing. They aren't loose in the cover, either, they just weren't there in the early stages of manufacture, I must assume.

I'm ordering another one

By A. morris on September 22, 2015

Size: Queen Verified Purchase

I really wasn't expecting much since it is made of memory foam, which always struck me as being heat-retentive. Boy, was I wrong about this pillow! It arrived today. When I removed it from the box, I guess I expected it to be cool to the touch. I couldn't really discern any difference in its temperature from that of the room. I also had Febreze at the ready because another reviewer indicated that there would be an unpleasant smell that would dissipate after a few days exposure to air. There was no bad smell, though. I am lying on the pillow right now. And, it is unbelievable how cool this pillow is. My body temperature elevates while I sleep. Often, this means that I awaken in the middle of the night unable to cool down before I am fully awake. But, this pillow is doing a remarkable job of keeping me cool without making me cold. It is so wonderful that I am going to buy another. It would be great if there was a bed with this cool gel feature. There probably already is, right?

The pillow isn't really a "cooling" pillow. The gel doesn't conduct as much heat as a normal pillow but the pillow is room temperature.

Not the pillow pictured or described. There is no gel layer like the photo and descriptions say, only a couple dots of gel sprinkled randomly and when I say a couple I mean that literally, see the 'gel side' in my photo. Result is just a run of the mill memory foam pillow that gets hot like any other. 1 star for either lying about the composition or just using a really cheap manufacturing company to mass produce.

Necessity and oh my gosh amazing pillow!

By Twinkie on September 10, 2015

I had no idea a pillow could be this great! When I opened it I thought how on earth can a pillow come out of this little box and its heavy, I've also order things like this in the past and they have a horrible smell, this pillow didn't at all! It doesn't have any smell to it. I opened it and it just unfolded into this amazing pillow that is gel memory of some sort! Its so comfortable. I use to wake up with neck pain and my pillows became saggy or lost their life after a while and got flat. Not this pillow it springs right back to its original shape. It also stays cool, I hate when you wake up in sweat and this eliminates that completely. My neck feels great and I sleep so much better. I will be having to order more because my husband, daughter and I are fighting over this one.

* I received this product at a discounted rate for providing my honest opinion.

Provides Support To Stomach Sleepers

By Amazon Customer on September 12, 2015

This pillow is dense and heavy. The foam is soft and does conform well to the head. I am a stomach sleeper. I like to take my pillow and fold it in half to sleep on it. This pillow works well for stomach sleeping. The pillow itself is rather flat. I am not sure it would work well for side sleepers. The pillow is not gusseted.

The pillow does come with a cover. I have a picture of the cover. I am not sure the cover is cooling. Since I cover the pillow with a pillow case I may remove the outside cover.

This is a firm yet conforming pillow. It will work well for a back or stomach sleeper but due to the thinness of the pillow it may not be suitable for a side sleeper.

Disclaimer: I received this product at a discount in exchange for my honest review.
