Unbelievable comfort, and I adore the minis! Minis fit us thick-calved girls who can never wear boots!

Sure they are comfy but they look funny! My feet looked absolutely huge in these! What a shame, because I really needed them for my weekend plans.

I've had my Ugg Mini's for about a month now, and I love them. I wear them for errands, grocery shopping, schlepping the kids, etc. I have fleece-lined slippers that I wear in the house without socks, and I love that I don't have to put on socks when I need to run an errand. This is exactly why I bought them and they suit my purpose perfectly. The Mini's look great under the boot-cut yoga pants I live in, and they keep my ankles warm, too. One warning - they have no support. I wore them to the mall for about 3 hours, and my knees and hips were aching. And they do run a size big. I am usually an 11 and had to send those back for a size 10.

My first pair of Uggs, and I am in love. The first pair came in the right box with the wrong size inside. Zappos overnighted the correct size to me the next day. You do rock, Zappos. I found the mini to be a perfect size 8 - just like me. I live in them. Now I want another color for Christmas. I am newly retired and live in yoga pants. These minis are perfect with the basic black yogas or sweats. I watched students wear these for years but had only worn look-alikes. Now I know why people buy Uggs. Comfort with a capital C. Thanks Zappos. You made my holiday.

I ordered these boots yesterday and got them today! They are so cute and cozy! I like that they are shorter because they are not bulky and look great. I am a 7.5 and ordered a 7. They feel perfect and I can even fit my custom made insoles and still be comfortable. Without insoles they do not have good arch support.

Great Ugg boots. Very comfortable and look nice with casual pants. And if you're young. I am not. With skirts. I always order a half size up in Uggs. They seem to run a bit short for me. All purpose boot for the young. And old at heart!
