1.2 Patent License.

(a) Effective upon RPX's payment to Licensor of the License Fee, Licensor shall automatically be deemed to grant, and does hereby grant, to RPX the Patent License, which Patent License shall include the exclusive and irrevocable right of RPX to grant sublicenses under the Patent License to all Initial Licensees.

The Patent License shall also include the express right of RPX to release, on behalf of Licensor and its Affiliates, the foregoing sublicensees from all claims for damages for past, present and future infringement of the Patents. Any Entity that is granted a sublicense by RPX (directly or indirectly) in accordance with Section 1.2(a) shall be deemed an "RPX Licensee" for purposes of this Agreement.

(b) Effective upon RPX's payment to Licensor of the License Fee, Licensor shall immediately complete the Release and Dismissal Obligations with respect to any Initial Licensees and their Affiliates that are Licensor Litigation Defendants.

(c) The sublicense (and release) granted in accordance with Section 1.2(a) and Section 4.3 to any Entity under the Patent License shall be deemed to be a further sublicense (and release) to that Entity's Affiliates ("RPX Licensee Affiliates"), and such RPX Licensees' and RPX Licensee Affiliates' direct and indirect customers, have-made vendors, developers, distributors, dealers, suppliers, manufacturers, original equipment manufacturers (OEMs), original design manufacturers (ODMs), system integrators, other contractors, licensees, and users (including end users) solely to the extent such third parties make, have made, use, purchase, provide, host, sell, lease, distribute, supply, export, import, offer for sale, or otherwise exploit or dispose of any Licensed Product and Service and/or Combined Licensed Product and Service (each, a "Covered Third Party"). Each RPX Licensee shall have the right, consistent with this Section 1.2(c), to grant specific non-sublicensable, non-assignable sublicenses to its Covered Third Parties with respect to such RPX Licensee's or its Affiliates' Licensed Products and Services and/or Combined Licensed Product and Service.

(d) For clarity and without limiting anything herein, if an Entity becomes an "Affiliate" of an RPX Licensee after the Effective Date of this Agreement (a "Future Affiliate"), then the sublicenses, covenants and releases granted under this Agreement to such RPX Licensee shall extend to the acts of such Future Affiliate occurring prior to, as of, and following the date on which such Entity became a Future Affiliate.

(e) If RPX Licensee or any RPX Licensee Affiliates sells or transfers a portion of its assets or business, including through formation of a joint venture or sale of an entity (a "Spin-Off"), then RPX Licensee or RPX Licensee Affiliates shall have the right to grant a sublicense under the licenses, covenants and releases granted herein to such Spin-Off with respect to such assets or business provided, however, that any rights so sublicensed to any Spin-Off shall be limited to the business of the Spin-Off as of the date of the Spin-Off (and improvements and natural evolutions thereof) and shall not extend otherwise to any acquirer of such Spin-Off, the acquirer's Affiliates or any such acquirer's or such Affiliates' other businesses. This Agreement shall otherwise remain in effect with respect to RPX Licensee, RPX Licensee Affiliates and the licenses, covenants and releases shall continue to apply to the business and assets retained or later acquired by RPX Licensee and RPX Licensee Affiliates in addition to those transferred to the Spin-Off.

1.3 Covenant To Sue Last.

(a) Effective upon RPX's payment to Licensor of the License Fee, Licensor, on behalf of itself, its Affiliates, and each of their respective successors and assigns, shall automatically be deemed to grant, and does hereby grant, to RPX the CTSL (as defined below), which CTSL shall include the irrevocable right of RPX to grant rights under the CTSL to Dell Technologies Inc., Dell Inc., each of their Affiliates, and any business unit or division that Dell Technologies Inc., Dell Inc., or their respective Affiliates may divest (collectively, "Grantee"). The CTSL shall mean: Licensor agrees, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, and each of their respective successors and assigns, that it can sue Grantee (or any downstream customers of Grantee, based on any products and/or services of Grantee) for direct or indirect infringement (including, without limitation, inducement, or contributory infringement) under any of the Patents, only after Licensor has first fully pursued and exhausted any and all claims for infringement of the Patents (including any and all appeals and all available efforts to collect any judgment or settlement amount) against any and all other Entities. Licensor represents and warrants that, as of the Effective Date, at least one such other Entity exists against whom it has a claim for infringement of each Patent. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the existence and/or grant of the CTSL will not be used in connection with establishing or alleging against Grantee any claim of willful patent infringement.

(b) Effective upon RPX's payment to Licensor of the License Fee, Licensor shall immediately (i) execute in favor of Grantee a written agreement containing terms that are substantially similar in scope and effect as the CTSL Agreement in Exhibit F attached hereto, and (ii) take all actions and make all necessary filings to resolve all disputes with Grantee under any Licensor Litigation Defendant, including without limitation executing and filing a dismissal "without prejudice" substantially similar in form and effect to the form of dismissal in Exhibit G attached hereto (or, with respect to any Licensor Litigation in a non-U.S. jurisdiction, a dismissal "without prejudice" in such form as is appropriate for the relevant jurisdiction).

(c) For clarity and without limiting anything herein, if an Entity becomes an "Affiliate" of Grantee after the Effective Date of this Agreement, then the CTSL granted under this Agreement to such Grantee shall extend to the acts of such future Affiliate occurring prior to, as of, and following the date on which such Entity became a future Affiliate.

(d) If Grantee or any Grantee Affiliates sells or transfers a portion of its assets or business, including through formation of a joint venture or sale of an entity (a "Grantee Spin-Off"), then Grantee or Grantee Affiliates shall have the right to extend the CTSL granted herein to such Grantee Spin-Off with respect to such assets or business provided, however, that any CTSL to any Grantee Spin-Off shall be limited to the business of the Grantee Spin-Off as of the date of the Grantee Spin-Off and shall not extend otherwise to any acquirer of such Grantee Spin-Off, the acquirer's Affiliates or any such acquirer's or such Affiliates' other businesses. This Agreement shall otherwise remain in effect with respect to Grantee and Grantee Affiliates and the CTSL shall continue to apply to the business and assets retained or later acquired by Grantee and Grantee Affiliates in addition to those transferred to the Grantee Spin-Off.

Section 2. Representations and Warranties

2.1 Representations and Warranties of Licensor. Licensor, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, represents and warrants that, as of the Effective Date:

(a) it has all requisite legal right, power, and authority to execute and deliver all documents required to be executed (including this Agreement), and to perform all of its obligations under and grant all rights in accordance with this Agreement;

(b) it has good and marketable title to the Patents (including, without limitation, all right, title, and interest in the Patents and the right to sue for past, present and future infringements thereof); Licensor has the legal right to grant the CTSL granted in Section 1.3 as well as the Patent License and release set forth in Section 1.2 and Section 4.3, and it has accurate and complete copies of all agreements under which it obtained by assignment or otherwise such title to the Patents;

(c) the Patents are not subject to any licenses, covenants not to sue, liens, security interests, or other encumbrances that would impair the rights granted hereunder;

(d) the inventions and discoveries described in the Patents were made solely by the inventor(s) named in the Patents, and no other party has any inventorship rights with respect to any such inventions or to the Patents;

(e) it has not entered and shall not enter into any agreement that would materially impair or conflict with its obligations hereunder;

(f) there has been no previous sale, transfer, assignment or other grant of rights under the Patents or any other agreement by Licensor or any of its Affiliates that affects, in any manner, title to, or RPX's or any RPX Licensee's, RPX Licensee Affiliates, or any of the Covered Third Parties' enjoyment of, the Patents or the underlying inventions, including, but not limited to, an assignment of full or partial rights in or to one or more of the Patents, an exclusive license to one or more of the Patents, or a right or option to obtain an exclusive license;

(g) performance of this Agreement does not and will not conflict with or result in a breach of any agreement to which it is bound;

(h) other than as asserted in affirmative defenses, counterclaims, or otherwise in the Licensor Litigations, none of the inventors of the Patents nor their counsel: (i) intentionally failed to disclose any material, non-cumulative prior art references to the PTO or any foreign patent offices requiring such disclosure in connection with the prosecution of any Patents; (ii) made any material misstatements or misrepresentations to the PTO or any foreign patent offices in connection with the prosecution of any of the Patents; or (iii) engaged in any act or omission inconsistent with the duty of candor owed to the PTO or to any foreign patent offices;

(i) Licensor and its Affiliates do not own any right, title or interest in, or have exclusive license rights under, any patents or patent applications other than the Patents. To the extent that on the Effective Date, Licensor or its Affiliates own any right, title or interest in, has exclusive license rights under, or has the right to enforce or control, any patents or patent applications that are not expressly listed on Exhibit B, their omission from Exhibit B was inadvertent and such patents and patent applications were intended to be, and shall be treated as if they were, included on Exhibit B;

(j) neither Licensor nor any of its Affiliates has, in the twelve (12) month period prior to the Effective Date, divested (or otherwise assigned or transferred ownership or the right to enforce, license or control) any Patents, patents or patent applications to any Entity.

2.2 Representations and Warranties of RPX. RPX represents and warrants that it has all requisite legal right, power, and authority to execute, deliver, and perform this Agreement.

Section 3. Covenants of Licensor

In addition to and without limiting any other covenants contained in this Agreement, Licensor, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, further covenants as follows:

(a) it will not, and will ensure that none of its Affiliates will, enter into any agreement that would materially impair or conflict with its obligations hereunder;

(b) in the event it or any of its Affiliates transfers, assigns or conveys any interest in and to the Patents to any Entity, it will obligate such Entity to agree in writing to: (i) abide by all covenants, releases, rights and obligations owed under this Agreement by Licensor or its Affiliates; (ii) take the Patents subject to the CTSL, Patent License, release and covenants granted by Licensor hereunder and subject to any rights granted by RPX in accordance with this Agreement, and (iii) impose the obligations of this section in writing upon any subsequent assignees or transferees such that this section travels with and survives any transfer and/or assignment of the Patents;

(c) it shall pay all taxes (including, without limitation, sales and value added taxes) imposed on Licensor by the national government, and any state, local or other political subdivision thereof, of any country in which Licensor is subject to taxation, as the result of RPX's furnishing consideration hereunder;

(d) as of and following the date that RPX has paid the License Fee, neither Licensor nor any of its Affiliates will sue or threaten to sue (or instruct, encourage, or aid a third party to sue or threaten to sue) RPX, any RPX Affiliate, any RPX Licensee, or any RPX Licensee Affiliate for direct or indirect infringement (including, without limitation, inducement, or contributory infringement) under any Patent, and neither Licensor nor any of its Affiliates will sue or threaten to sue (or instruct, encourage, or aid a third party to sue or threaten to sue) any Covered Third Party for direct or indirect infringement (including, without limitation, inducement, or contributory infringement) under any Patent with respect to any Licensed Product and Service and/or Combined

Licensed Product and Service. As of and following the date that RPX has paid the License Fee, neither Licensor nor any of its Affiliates will allege that any product, software, technology, material and/or services of any RPX Licensee or any RPX Licensee Affiliate satisfies an element or step of a claim in any Patent against any Entity;

(e) as of and following the date that RPX has paid the License Fee, in the event that RPX or any RPX Licensee or Grantee provides written notice to Licensor that Licensor or its Affiliates have sued or threatened to sue (or instructed, encouraged, or aided a third party to sue or threaten to sue) any Entity in violation of Section 3(d) or Section 1.3, Licensor will immediately cease, and will cause its Affiliates to immediately cease, making any such threats and promptly dismiss (with prejudice, with respect to Section 3(d), and without prejudice with respect to Section 1.3), any such lawsuit (or other adversarial proceeding), and, to the extent Licensor or its Affiliates fails to take such action within five (5) days following such written notice, Licensor will promptly reimburse RPX, such RPX Licensee, RPX Licensee Affiliates, Grantee, Grantee Affiliate, and such damaged Entity (including but not limited to Covered Third Parties), as applicable, for any reasonable costs (including reasonable attorney fees) incurred as a result of such threat or lawsuit; and

(f) after the Effective Date, neither Licensor nor its Affiliates shall acquire any right, title or interest in, or exclusive license rights under, or the right to enforce or control, any patents or patent applications other than the Patents. To the extent that, after the Effective Date, Licensor or its Affiliates owns any right, title or interest in, or has exclusive license rights (or the right to grant rights), or has the right to enforce or control, under, any patents or patent applications that are not expressly listed on Exhibit B, then (i) such patents and patent applications are intended to be, and shall be treated as if they are, included on Exhibit B; and (ii) all rights, licenses, releases, waivers, representations, covenants, immunities and terms granted under this Agreement with respect to such patents and patent applications shall become effective immediately as of the first date that each such patent or patent application becomes owned, controlled, or licensable by Licensor or its Affiliates.

Section 4. Disclaimers, Indemnification and Releases

4.1 Disclaimer. NEITHER PARTY MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN SECTIONS 2 AND 3 ABOVE, AND EACH PARTY DISCLAIMS ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN SECTIONS 2 AND 3, NEITHER PARTY GIVES THE OTHER PARTY ANY ASSURANCE:

(A) REGARDING THE PATENTABILITY OF ANY CLAIMED INVENTION IN, OR THE VALIDITY, OF ANY PATENT, OR

(B) THAT THE MANUFACTURE, USE, SALE, OFFERING FOR SALE, IMPORTATION, EXPORTATION, OR OTHER DISTRIBUTION OF ANY LICENSED PRODUCT AND SERVICE AND/OR COMBINED LICENSED PRODUCT AND SERVICE

DISCLOSED AND CLAIMED IN ANY PATENT BY ANY LICENSEE, SUBLICENSEE OR ANYONE ELSE WILL OR WILL NOT CONSTITUTE AN INFRINGEMENT OF SUCH RIGHTS OR ANY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF ANY OTHER PERSONS OR ENTITIES.

4.2. Indemnification.

(a) Licensor shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless RPX and its Affiliates, and their directors, officers, agents and employees from and against any and all actual or pending claims, losses, expenses damages or other liabilities (including reasonable attorneys' fees), including those incurred in any dispute between the Parties, arising from Licensor's breach under this Section 4.2(a)), with any third party, or in any enforcement of this provision, arising out of, relating to, or based upon Licensor's or any of its Affiliates' material breach of any representation, warranty or covenant in this Agreement.

(b) In addition to any other remedies available to RPX, in the event RPX shall have a claim under Section 4.2(a), RPX shall promptly notify Licensor in writing of the claim, action, suit, proceeding or other circumstances giving rise to the claim for indemnification (collectively, the "Underlying Claim"); provided, however, that the failure to give such notice shall release Licensor of its indemnification obligations only to the extent that Licensor is prejudiced by such failure. Upon receipt of such notice of an Underlying Claim, Licensor may, by written notice to RPX delivered within thirty (30) business days of receiving such notice of the Underlying Claim, assume the sole defense and control of any third-party claim with its own counsel and at its own expense but shall allow RPX (or its applicable Affiliates) a reasonable opportunity to participate in the defense of such third-party claim with its own counsel and at its own expense. RPX (or its applicable Affiliates) may take any actions reasonably necessary to defend such third-party claim prior to the time that it receives a notice as contemplated by the preceding sentence. Licensor shall not settle any such claim other than for the payment of money without the prior written consent of RPX (or the applicable Affiliate), which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. RPX will provide Licensor, at Licensor's expense, with all assistance, information and authority reasonably required for the defense and settlement of the Underlying Claim. Licensor's total liability under this Section 4.2 shall be limited to amounts received by Licensor under this Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, the Parties agree that if any payment pursuant to Section 1 of this Agreement is subject to a Withholding Tax in any jurisdiction and if withholding from such payment is required or permitted by applicable law or administrative guidance, such Withholding Tax (including surcharges) shall be borne solely by the Party that is entitled to the consideration (including any amount credited) that is subject to the Withholding Tax, and such Party shall hold harmless and shall indemnify the respective other Party from any liabilities or losses related thereto.

4.3 Release.

(a) Effective upon receipt of the License Fee, Licensor and its Affiliates shall automatically be deemed to, and Licensor, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates does hereby, forever waive and release all Claims, known or unknown, based in whole or in part on acts prior to the Effective Date of this Agreement that Licensor or its Affiliates may have against RPX, any RPX Affiliate, any RPX Licensee, any RPX Licensee Affiliates, or any other Entity (including but not limited to Covered Third Parties) granted a sublicense under the Patents in accordance with Section 1.2.

(b) Licensor, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, understands and agrees that the releases set forth in Section 4.3(a) shall extend to any and all Claims described in Section 4.3(a) of every nature and kind whatsoever, whether such Claims are known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, and any and all rights that may exist under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code (or any law of any jurisdiction, or principle of common law, which is similar, comparable or equivalent to California Civil Code Section 1542) ("Section 1542") within the scope of the release set forth in Section 4.3(a) are expressly waived. Licensor, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, expressly acknowledges that it has read Section 1542, which provides as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

Licensor, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, understands and agrees that Section 1542, if applicable herein, gives it and its Affiliates the right not to release existing claims of which it and its Affiliates are not now aware of and do not suspect to exist, unless it voluntarily chooses to waive this right. Even though Licensor, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, is aware of this right, Licensor, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates nevertheless hereby voluntarily waives the right described in Section 1542, and elects to assume all risks for Claims that now exist in its (and/or its Affiliates') favor, known or unknown, arising from the subject matter of the release set forth in Section 4.3(a), and expressly waives any rights under any other statutes or common law principles of similar effect. If, contrary to the specific intent of Licensor (or its Affiliates), any Claims released under Section 4.3(a) are deemed to exist or survive despite the releases given in Section 4.3(a) above, Licensor, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, hereby forever, expressly and irrevocably waives entitlement to all such Claims, known and unknown, prior to the Effective Date, and it is expressly agreed that the provisions of Section 1542 do not apply.

Section 5. Miscellaneous

5.1 Binding Effect and Assignment. This Agreement shall not be binding upon the Parties until it has been signed herein below by or on behalf of each Party. This Agreement shall be binding on, and shall inure to the benefit of, the Parties hereto and their respective Affiliates, successors and assigns. No amendment or modification hereof shall be valid or binding upon the Parties unless made in writing and signed as aforesaid. Without limiting the foregoing, in no event will either Party allege that any oral discussions, emails, texts or the like constitute an amendment to this Agreement or otherwise constitute a binding agreement between the Parties. The Patent License and any sublicenses granted and/or included therein pursuant to Section 1.2 are for the benefit of RPX, RPX Licensees, RPX Licensee Affiliates, and each of their respective Covered Third Parties, and RPX and RPX Licensees can legally enforce such licenses and sublicenses, as well as the terms of this Agreement, against Licensor and its Affiliates. The CTSL granted pursuant to Section 1.3 is for the benefit of RPX and Grantee, and RPX and Grantee can legally enforce the terms of this Agreement against Licensor and its Affiliates.

5.2 Notices. Notices and other communications relevant to this Agreement or to any of the Patents shall be sent by electronic mail, hand delivery, or by registered or certified mail to the following address, or to such other address as may be given by notice hereafter, and shall be effective upon sending, if sent by electronic mail, as proven by electronic date stamp, or upon receipt if sent by registered or certified mail, as proven by a post office delivery receipt:

5.3 Severability. If any section of this Agreement is found by competent authority to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect for any reason, the validity, legality, and enforceability of any such section in every other respect and the remainder of this Agreement shall continue in effect so long as the Agreement still expresses the intent of the Parties.

5.4 Governing Law. This Agreement, including its formation, shall be governed by and construed, and the legal relations between the Parties hereto shall be determined, in accordance with the law of the State of Delaware, United States of America, as such law applies to contracts signed and fully performed in such State, without regard to the principles of conflicts of law thereof.

5.5 Section Headings. The headings of sections are inserted for convenience of reference only and are not intended to be part of or to affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

5.6 Confidentiality. Neither Party hereto shall disclose the terms of this Agreement to any third party, without the prior written consent of the other Party. This obligation is subject to the following exceptions: (a) disclosure by the Parties and their Affiliates is permissible if required by government or court order, discovery request, or subpoena in pending Licensor Litigations, provided that: (i) the disclosing Party first gives the other Party prior written notice in order to enable that Party to seek a protective order or motion to quash (or other equivalent protection), such permissible disclosure limited to the terms legally required to be disclosed, and (ii) any such disclosure is subject to protective order, with such permissible disclosure protected under an “Outside Attorneys Eyes Only” or higher confidentiality designation; or if before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (the “Board”), under a “Business Confidential” designation viewable only by the Board, and any disclosure of financial terms that may be required by the International Trade Commission (the “ITC”) will be made by Licensor only, under a confidentiality designation that is viewable only by the ITC, its staff; (b) disclosure by the Parties and their Affiliates is permissible if otherwise required by any applicable securities exchange rules or regulations, such permissible disclosure limited to the terms legally required to be disclosed; (c) the Parties and their Affiliates may disclose this Agreement or its contents to the extent reasonably necessary, on a confidential basis, to each of their respective accountants, attorneys, insurance partners, and financial advisors; (d) RPX and its Affiliates may disclose the non-financial terms of this Agreement to Grantee, any RPX Licensees and any other potential sublicensees of the Patents, including Covered Third Parties; (e) either Party may disclose any information that was made publicly available without a breach of this Agreement; and (f) RPX may issue a press release (without disclosing any financial terms) following the execution of this Agreement to announce the consummation of this transaction. If Licensor is notified that any federal government agency or third party is requesting to have the terms of this Agreement made available, Licensor immediately shall notify RPX in writing.

5.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including the exhibits attached hereto, embodies the entire understanding of and agreement between the Parties with respect to the Patents and merges and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations, and discussions between the Parties. Neither Party shall be bound by any condition, definition, warranty, understanding or representation with respect to the subject matter hereof other than as expressly provided herein. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, nothing in this Agreement will limit or narrow any rights granted under that Agreement entered into by and between RPX and Licensor dated July 8, 2020. Notwithstanding the foregoing, but subject to the confidentiality terms set forth in Section 5.6, the nondisclosure agreement previously entered into by and between the Parties remains in full force and effect. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement is intended to (a) revoke, narrow, terminate, or require a refund of any payment received under any prior license, settlement, release or other grant of rights between Licensor and any RPX Licensee, Grantee and/or their respective Affiliates, or the respective Covered Third Parties or (b) revive or preserve in the name of Licensor, any of its Affiliates or any successors in interest any claims otherwise released and dismissed by Licensor or its Affiliates under any Patents.

5.8 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed by the Parties in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

5.9 Relationship of the Parties. Nothing contained herein, or done in pursuance of this Agreement, will constitute the Parties entering into a joint venture or partnership or will constitute either Party hereto being the agent for the other Party for any purpose or in any sense whatsoever.

5.10 Licenses of Intellectual Property. All rights, licenses and releases granted by Licensor, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, directly or indirectly to RPX, RPX Affiliates, RPX Licensees, Grantee, and Covered Third Parties (including each such Entity's Affiliates) are, and shall otherwise be deemed to be, for the purpose of Section 365(n) of the United States Bankruptcy Code, as amended (the "Bankruptcy Code"), licenses of rights to "intellectual property" as defined under Section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Parties hereto agree that RPX, RPX Affiliates, RPX Licensees, Grantee, and Covered Third Parties (including each such Entity's Affiliates), as licensees or sublicensees or recipients of rights granted in this Agreement, shall retain and may fully exercise all their rights and elections under the Bankruptcy Code. The Parties hereto further agree that, in the event that any proceeding shall be instituted by or against Licensor seeking to adjudicate it as bankrupt or insolvent, or seeking liquidation, winding up, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, protection, relief or composition of it or its debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, or reorganization or relief of debtors, or seeking an entry of an order for relief or the appointment of a receiver, trustee or other similar official for it or any substantial part of its property or it shall take any action to authorize any of the foregoing actions, the opposite Parties shall have the right to retain and enforce their rights under this Agreement, provided that they remain in full compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

5.11 Authorship. Neither Party shall be considered the author of this Agreement for the purpose of interpreting any provision herein.

5.12 Acknowledgement. Licensor acknowledges that nothing in this Agreement shall require or shall be construed to require RPX or any RPX Affiliate to sue or threaten to sue (or instruct, encourage, or aid a third party to sue or threaten to sue) any Entity.

5.13 Termination and Survival. The term of this Agreement shall commence upon the Effective Date and shall continue until the expiration of the last to expire patent that is or could be a Patent. Those provisions that by their nature are intended to survive termination or expiration of this Agreement shall so survive. For the avoidance of doubt, the Patent License granted by Licensor to RPX hereunder, the CTSL granted by Licensor hereunder, RPX's right to grant sublicenses and CTSLs in accordance with Section 1, all sublicenses and CTSLs granted by RPX in accordance with Section 1, and all releases covenants, representations and warranties given by Licensor shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

5.14 No Domestic Industry. Licensor agrees on behalf of itself, its Affiliates, and their successors and assigns not to claim that the rights conveyed in this Agreement, or the alleged practice of any Patents by any Entity covered under this Agreement, constitute evidence of a domestic industry pursuant to Section 337(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 or any similar foreign or domestic statute, and hereby irrevocably waives any such argument.

Mutual Release.

Except with respect to the obligations created by or arising out of this Release Agreement, Licensor does hereby for itself and its respective legal successors, Affiliates, heirs and assigns, irrevocably release and absolutely discharge [RELEASED ENTITY], each [RELEASED ENTITY] Affiliate, and each of [RELEASED ENTITY]’s and each [RELEASED ENTITY] Affiliate’s respective direct and indirect customers, suppliers, have-made vendors, dealers, manufacturers, original equipment manufacturers (OEMs), original design manufacturers (ODMs), system integrators, other contractors, licensees, developers, users (including end users), distributors, dealers, employees, representatives, agents, officers, directors, parents, subsidiaries, past and present (each, a “Covered Third Party”), of and from any and all Claims based in whole or in part on acts of [RELEASED ENTITY] or any [RELEASED ENTITY] Affiliate prior to the Effective Date of this Release Agreement. To the extent that, after the Effective Date, Licensor or its Affiliates owns any right, title or interest in, or has exclusive license rights (or the right to grant rights) under, any patents or patent applications that are not expressly listed on Schedule 1, then (i) such patents and patent applications are intended to be, and shall be treated as if they are, included on Schedule 1; and (ii) the release granted in the foregoing sentence with respect to such patents and patent applications shall become effective immediately as of the first date that each such patent or patent application becomes owned, controlled, or licensable by Licensor or its Affiliates. The release granted in this paragraph further extends to Covered Third Parties, solely to the extent of their use, purchase, sale, importation, offer for sale or distribution of Licensed Products or Services and/or Combined Licensed Product and Services.

Except with respect to the obligations created by or arising out of this Release Agreement, [RELEASED ENTITY], each [RELEASED ENTITY] Affiliate², and each of their respective legal successors, heirs and assigns, release and absolutely discharge Licensor, and each of Licensor’s employees, representatives, agents, officers, directors, parents, subsidiaries, past and present, solely of and from any and all Claims, demands, damages, debts, liabilities, accounts, reckonings, obligations, costs, expenses, liens, attorneys’ fees, actions and causes of action of every kind and nature whatever, arising out of the institution, filing, prosecution and resolution of the Licensor Litigation. Nothing in this Release Agreement, however, shall extinguish, impair or otherwise affect any defense, Claim, or position of [RELEASED ENTITY] that the Patents are not infringed, invalid and/or not enforceable. Accordingly, with respect to any defenses, Claims, and/or challenges relating to the Patents, [RELEASED ENTITY] shall be in the same position as though the Licensor Litigation had never been brought.

The parties acknowledge and agree that this Release Agreement fully and finally releases and forever resolves the Licensor Litigation, including those Claims identified above involving the Patents and the Licensed Products and Services and/or Combined Licensed Product and Services

The parties acknowledge and understand the significance and potential consequence of the release of unknown claims. The parties intend that the claims released under this Release Agreement be construed as broadly as possible and agree to waive and relinquish all rights and benefits each may have under Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, or any similar statute or law of any other jurisdiction. Section 1542 reads as follows: "A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY."

[To the extent that [RELEASED PARTY] or any of its Affiliates has initiated Claims (or any Inter partes reviews or other invalidity or nullity proceedings before the PTO or any other US or foreign court or administrative body) relating to any Patent ("Challenge"), the Parties will mutually cooperate to request the termination of proceedings related to such Challenge. Such request for the termination of proceedings related to any such Challenge will be made immediately after a fully-executed dismissal with prejudice with respect to any Licensor Litigations pending against [RELEASED ENTITY] and/or its Affiliates is entered by the applicable court, but only to the extent that Licensor and [RELEASED ENTITY] possess the authority to request the termination of such petitions. If such petition has been co-filed with any third-party, then after a fully-executed dismissal with prejudice with respect to any Licensor Litigations pending against [RELEASED PARTY] and/or its Affiliates is entered by the applicable court, [RELEASED PARTY] and/or its Affiliates will immediately discontinue any substantive involvement in such Challenge, following which [RELEASED PARTY]'s and/or its Affiliates' obligations under this section will be deemed satisfied.]³

No Right to Terminate. Neither Party may terminate this Release Agreement without the express, written consent of the other Party.

No Domestic Industry. Licensor agrees on behalf of itself, its Affiliates, and their successors and assigns not to claim that the rights conveyed to [RELEASED ENTITY] in this Release Agreement or [RELEASED ENTITY]'s alleged practice of any Patents are evidence of a domestic industry pursuant to Section 337(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 or any similar foreign or domestic statute, and hereby irrevocably waives any such argument.

Entire Agreement. This Release Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties concerning the subject matter hereof and supersedes all written and oral prior agreements and understandings with respect thereto.
