

Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary

Fourth Edition

Edited by Colin McIntosh

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

JHU 2158

Merck Sharp v. Johns Hopkins

IPR2024-00649

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

University Printing House, Cambridge CB2 8BS, United Kingdom

Cambridge University Press is part of the University of Cambridge.

It furthers the University's mission by disseminating knowledge in the pursuit of education, learning and research at the highest international levels of excellence.

www.cambridge.org

Information on this title: www.cambridge.org/9781107619500

© Cambridge University Press 2013

This publication is in copyright. Subject to statutory exception and to the provisions of relevant collective licensing agreements, no reproduction of any part may take place without the written permission of Cambridge University Press.

Defined words which we have reason to believe constitute trademarks have been labelled as such. However, neither the presence nor absence of such labels should be regarded as affecting the legal status of any trademarks.

First published 1995 as Cambridge International Dictionary of English

This edition first published 2013 as Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary
3rd printing 2013

Printed in India by Replika Press Pvt. Ltd

A catalogue record for this publication is available from the British Library

ISBN 978-1-107-035157 Hardback

ISBN 978-1-107-685499 Paperback

ISBN 978-1-107-674479 Hardback with CD-ROM

ISBN 978-1-107-619500 Paperback with CD-ROM

Cambridge University Press has no responsibility for the persistence or accuracy of URLs for external or third-party internet websites referred to in this publication, and does not guarantee that any content on such websites is, or will remain, accurate or appropriate. Information regarding prices, travel timetables and other factual information given in this work is correct at the time of first printing but Cambridge University Press does not guarantee the accuracy of such information thereafter.

make something, such as a speech or a device, at the time when it is needed without already having planned it: I hadn't prepared a speech so I suddenly had to improvise. • To sleep on, we improvised a mattress from a pile of blankets. 2 When actors or musicians improvise, they perform without prepared speech or music, making up the play, music, etc. as they perform it: During certain scenes of the play there isn't any script and the actors just improvise (the dialogue).

imprudent /ɪmˈpruː.dənt/ adj formal unwise, by failing to consider the likely results of your actions: The report criticizes the banks for being imprudent in their lending. • imprudence /-dəns/ noun [U] formal impudent /ɪmˈpjʊ.dənt/ adj rude and not showing respect, especially towards someone who is older or in a more important position: an impudent remark/child • impudence /-dəns/ noun [U] impugn /ɪmˈpjʊːn/ verb [T] formal to cause people to doubt someone's character, qualities, or reputation by criticizing them: Are you impugning my competence as a professional designer?

impulse /ɪmˈpʌls/ noun WISH ▷ 1 Ⓐ [C + to infinitive] a sudden strong wish to do something: I had this sudden impulse to shout out 'Rubbish!' in the middle of her speech. 2 on (an) impulse Ⓒ because you suddenly want to, although you haven't planned to: 'I didn't know you were looking for some new shoes.' 'Oh, I wasn't – I just bought them on impulse.' SIGNAL ▷ 3 [C] a short electrical, radio or light signal which carries information or instructions between the parts of a system: an electrical/nerve impulse REASON ▷ 4 [C usually singular] formal something that is the force behind or reason for something else: a creative/commercial impulse impulse buy noun [C] something that you buy suddenly and without thinking carefully: I hadn't intended to get one – it was an impulse buy. • impulse buying noun [U] the act of buying something that you had not planned to buy, because you suddenly want it when you see it: They display chocolates next to supermarket checkouts to encourage impulse buying.

impulsive /ɪmˈpʌl.sɪv/ adj Ⓒ showing behaviour in which you do things suddenly without any planning and without considering the effects they may have: Don't be so impulsive – think before you act. • an impulsive man/decision/gesture • impulsively /-li/ adv

impunity /ɪmˈpjʊː.nɪ.ti/ Ⓐ /-ə.ti/ noun [U] freedom from punishment or from the unpleasant results of something that has been done: Criminal gangs are terrorizing the city with apparent impunity.

impure /ɪmˈpjʊə/ Ⓐ /-pjʊə/ adj MIXED ▷ 1 mixed with other substances and therefore lower in quality: impure heroin/gold BAD ▷ 2 literary or humorous involving sexual thoughts or behaviour that are wrong or not moral: She was accused of having impure thoughts about her male students.

impurity /ɪmˈpjʊə.rɪ.ti/ Ⓐ /-pjʊə.ti/ noun MIXED ▷ 1 [C or U] the fact that a substance is dirty or lower in quality because it is mixed with another substance, or something that causes this: Impurities are removed from the blood by the kidneys. • The impurity of the water is a health risk. BAD ▷ 2 [U] literary or humorous sexual thoughts or behaviour that are wrong or not moral imputation /ɪmˈpjʊːteɪ.ʃən/ noun [C or U] formal a suggestion that someone is guilty of something or has a particular bad quality: imputations of dishonesty

impute /ɪmˈpjʊːt/ verb

PHRASALVERB impute sth to sb formal ACCUSE ▷ 1 to say that someone is responsible for something that has happened, or that something is the cause of something else: They imputed the error to the lawyer who was handling her case. BELIEVE ▷ 2 to believe that someone or something has a particular characteristic, quality, or meaning: He arrogantly imputed stupidity to anyone who disagreed with him.

in /ɪn/ preposition; adv; adj

▷ preposition INSIDE ▷ 1 Ⓐ inside or towards the inside of a container, place or area, or surrounded or closed off by something: Put the milk back in the fridge when you've finished with it. • Is Mark still in bed? • I got stuck in a traffic jam for half an hour. • They live in a charming old cottage. • How much is that coat on display in the window (= in the space behind the window of the shop)? • I've got a pain in my back. • What's that in your hand? • I've got something in (= on the surface of) my eye. • They used to live in Paris, but now they're somewhere in Austria. • He's always looking at himself in the mirror (= at the image of his face produced by the mirror). • I never know what's going on in her head (= what she's thinking about). • My daughter's in hospital (US in the hospital) having her tonsils out. • US Is Erika still in school (= does she still go to school)? INTO ▷ 2 into something: Come on, we're late – get in the car. • Put it in the cupboard. • They threw him in the swimming pool. PART ▷ 3 Ⓐ forming a part of something: He used to be the lead singer in a rock 'n' roll band. • There are too many spelling mistakes in this essay. • I've been waiting in this queue for ages. • What do you look for in a relationship? • I can see a future champion in Joely (= I think that Joely might become a champion). • Talent like hers is rare in someone so young. DURING ▷ 4 Ⓐ during part or all of a period of time: We're going to Italy in April. • Some trees lose their leaves in (the) autumn. • I started working here in 2009. • Life in the 19th century was very different from what it is now. • Bye, see you in the morning (= tomorrow morning). • She was a brilliant gymnast in her youth (= when she was young). • How many civilians died in the Vietnam War? • This is the first cigarette I've had in three years. • I haven't had a decent night's sleep in years/ages (= for a long time). 5 in between between the two times mentioned: I have breakfast at 7.30, lunch at 1.00, and sometimes a snack in between. NO MORE THAN ▷ 6 Ⓐ needing or using no more time than a particular amount of time: Can you finish the job in two weeks? • She could get that essay done in a couple of hours if she really tried. • They completed the journey in record time (= faster than ever done before). BEFORE THE END ▷ 7 Ⓐ before or at the end of a particular period: Dinner will be ready in ten minutes. • We'll all be dead in a hundred years so there's no point worrying about it. • I'm just setting off, so I should be with you in half an hour. EXPERIENCING ▷ 8 Ⓐ experiencing a situation or condition, or feeling an emotion: We watched in horror as they pulled the bodies from the wreckage. • He's living in luxury in the south of France. • She left in a bit of a hurry. • You're in great danger. • Could I have a word with you in private? • Have you ever been in love? • Your car's in very good condition, considering how old it is. EXPRESSED ▷ 9 Ⓐ expressed or written in a particular way: Cheques should be written in ink. • She usually paints in watercolour. • They spoke in Russian the whole time. • He always talks in a whisper. RESULT ▷ 10 Ⓐ used when referring to something that is done as a result of something else: I'd like to do something for you in return/exchange for everything you've done for me. • The changes are in response to demand from our customers.

 • He refused to say anything in reply to the journalists' questions. ARRANGEMENT ▷ 11 ③ used to show how things or people are arranged or divided: We all sat down in a circle. • The desks were arranged in rows of ten. • Discounts are available to people travelling in large groups. • Sometimes customers buy books in twos and threes, but rarely in larger quantities than that. • Cut the potatoes in two. • People are dying in their thousands from cold and starvation. AGE/TEMPERATURE ▷ 12 used when referring approximately to someone's age or the weather temperature: Nowadays many women are in their late thirties when they have their first child. • Temperatures will be in the mid-twenties (= about 25 degrees). INVOLVED ▷ 13 ③ involved or connected with a particular subject or activity: I never knew you were in publishing. • a degree in philosophy • advances in medical science WEARING ▷ 14 ③ wearing: Do you recognize that man in the grey suit? • Pat can't resist men in uniform. • You look nice in green (= green clothes). COMPARING AMOUNTS ▷ 15 used to compare one part of an amount of something with the total amount of it: Apparently one in ten people/one person in ten has problems with reading. • UK The basic rate of income tax is 25 pence in (US on) the pound. CHARACTERISTIC ▷ 16 used to show which characteristic or part of a person or thing is being described: The new version is worse in every respect – I much preferred the original. • Are the two bags equal in weight? • She's deaf in her left ear. CAUSE ▷ 17 [+ -ing verb] used to show when doing one thing is the cause of another thing happening: In refusing (= because she refused) to work abroad, she missed an excellent job opportunity. • The government banned tobacco advertising and, in doing so (= because of this), contributed greatly to the nation's health. 18 in that formal because: This research is important in that it confirms the link between aggression and alcohol.

IDIOMS be nothing/not much/very little in it informal said when two things that are being compared are the same or very similar: One house has a slightly bigger garden, but there's really not much in it. • in all ③ with everything added together to make a total: The bill came to £25 in all. • in all honesty/seriousness/truthfulness said when expressing your opinion honestly, seriously or TRUTHFULLY: In all honesty, I do have some criticisms to make.

▷ adv FROM OUTSIDE ▷ 1 ② from outside, or towards the centre: Could you bring the clothes in for me? • The roof of their house caved in during a hurricane. • Cut the pastry into a square and turn in the corners. 2 be in and out of somewhere informal to often be staying in and receiving treatment in a particular place: She's been in and out of hospitals ever since the accident. AT PLACE ▷ 3 ③ at home or at work: When did you get home? • I never heard you come in. • Mr Ellis isn't in this week. INSIDE ▷ 4 within an object, area, or substance: We've been shut in all day. • Has the soup got any salt in? TRANSPORT ▷ 5 ③ having arrived at the place where people can get on or off: What time is Roz's flight due in? GIVEN ▷ 6 ③ given or sent to someone official in order to be read: When does your essay have to be in? • Remember to get your application in by the end of the week. COAST ▷ 7 towards the coast, beach, or HARBOUR: The tide comes in very quickly here and you can soon find yourself stranded. • We stood watching the ship come in. COMPLETION ▷ 8 used to refer to an activity which makes something complete: Just pencil in the answer unless you're sure it's correct. • The text is finished, but the pictures will have to be pasted in later. • UK Would you mind filling in a questionnaire about what you watch on television? SPORT ▷ 9 If the ball is in during a game of tennis or a similar sport, it has not gone outside the edges of the area on which the game is played: I won that point, I'm telling you! The ball was definitely in! 10 taking your turn to play, especially taking your turn to hit the ball: Who's in next for our team? • It started to rain just as our team was going in to bat.

IDIOMS be/get in with sb to be or become popular or friendly with someone: He's trying to get in with the teachers. • in on sth involved with or knowing about a particular activity or plan: He seems to be in on everything that happens at work. • She's trying to get in on a research project organized by the university. • be well in there UK informal to be likely to experience something good because of a situation you are in: She's well in there now that she's married her boss's son.

▷ adj informal fashionable or popular: High heels are in this season. • The new jazz club seems to be the in place to go at the moment.

-in /ɪn/ suffix used to form a noun which describes an activity in which many people take part: a sit-in/phone-in in- (before l il-, before b, m or p im-, before r ir-) /ɪn-/ prefix used to add the meaning 'not', 'lacking', or 'the opposite of' to adjectives and to words formed from adjectives: incomplete/incompletely • illegal/illegally • impossible/impossibly • irregular/irregularly → Compare dis-, non-, un-

inability /ɪn.əˈbɪl.ɪ.ti/ (US) /-tɪ/ noun [S or U] ④ lack of ability to do something: [+ to infinitive] Inability to use a computer is a serious disadvantage when you are applying for jobs. → Compare disability in absentia /ɪn.æbˈsen.ti.ə/, /-ʃi.ə/ adv formal while the person involved is not present: An Italian court convicted him in absentia for his terrorist activities.

inaccessible /ɪn.əkˈses.ɪ.bəl/ adj PLACE ▷ 1 very difficult or impossible to travel to: one of the most inaccessible places in the world • Some of the houses on the hillside are inaccessible to cars. MEANING ▷ 2 difficult to understand or admire: Why is opera so inaccessible to so many people? • I found his lecture completely inaccessible. • inaccessibility /ɪn.əkˈses.ɪˈbɪl.ɪ.ti/ (US) /-ə.ti/ noun [U] inaccuracy /ɪnˈæk.ju.rə.si/ (US) /-jə.ə-/ noun [C or U] ④ a situation in which a fact or measurement is not completely correct or exact: The film is full of historical inaccuracies. • The inaccuracy of the missiles greatly diminishes their effectiveness.

inaccurate /ɪnˈæk.ju.rət/ (US) /-jə.ət/ adj ④ not completely correct or exact, or not able to do something correctly or exactly: Their estimate of the cost of the project was wildly (= extremely) inaccurate. • an inaccurate device/weapon • inaccurately /-li/ adv inaction /ɪnˈæk.ʃən/ noun [U] formal failure to do anything which might provide a solution to a problem: The West's inaction has put millions of people at risk of starvation.

inactive /ɪnˈæk.tɪv/ adj doing nothing: It's bad for your health to be physically inactive. • The property market remains largely inactive. • inactivity /ɪn.ækˈtɪv.ɪ.ti/ (US) /-ə.ti/ noun [U] a period of inactivity • economic/physical inactivity inadequacy /ɪnˈæd.ɪ.kwə.si/ noun 1 [C or U] the fact that something is not good enough or is too small in amount: Economic growth is hindered by the inadequacies of the public transport system. • The inadequacy of the budget is likely to cause problems. 2 [U] a re- /ri:/, /ri:/, /r-/ prefix 1 used to add the meaning 'do again', especially to verbs: rebuild • re-marry • reusable 2 returning something to its original state: reafforestation (= planting new trees in an area where they were previously cut down).

're /r/ (US) /ə/ short form of are: You're late.

re¹ /ri:/ preposition formal (especially in business letters) about; on the subject of: Re your communication of 15 February...

re² (also ray) /reɪ/ noun [S] the second note of the sol-fa musical scale

reach /ri:tʃ/ verb; noun

► verb ARRIVE ▷ 1 [T] [I] to arrive at a place, especially after spending a long time or a lot of effort travelling: We won't reach Miami till five or six o'clock. • They finally reached the coast after five weeks sailing. • News of his accident had only just reached us. 2 reach a decision, agreement, conclusion, etc. [S] to make a decision, agreement, etc. about something: She reached the conclusion that there was no more she could do. • We'll inform you when a decision has been reached. • The jury took four days to reach a verdict.

Common mistake: reach or achieve?

Warning: choose the right word!

To talk about reaching an aim, especially after a lot of work or effort, don't say 'reach', say achieve:

What are the qualities a person needs to reach success?

What are the qualities a person needs to achieve success?

LEVEL ▷ 3 [T] to get to a particular level, especially a high one: The temperature is expected to reach 30°C today. • He's just reached the grand old age of 95. • I've reached the point where I'm not going to put up with her criticisms of me any more. STRETCH ▷ 4 [I or T] to stretch out your arm in order to get or touch something: She's grown so tall that she can reach the door handle now. • He reached for the phone and knocked over a glass. • The child reached down/out/over and picked up the kitten. • He reached his hand out for the money. • [+ two objects] UK Can you reach me (down) that book? 5 [I or T] If an object reaches something, the top or bottom of it touches that thing: The ladder won't quite reach the top of the wall. • She was wearing a dress that reached (to) her ankles. COMMUNICATE ▷ 6 [T] to communicate with someone in a different place, especially by phone or email: I've been trying to reach you on the phone all day. 7 [T] to understand and communicate with someone: He's a strange child and his teachers find it difficult to reach him.

Common mistake: reach

Remember that in all meanings except 'stretch', reach is never followed by 'to'.

Don't say 'reach to something', say reach something:

Our income reached to $90 million in 1999.

Our income reached $90 million in 1999.

IDIOM reach for the stars to want or try to get something that is difficult or impossible to get

PHRASAL VERB reach out to sb 1 to try to communicate with a person or a group of people, usually in order to help or involve them: The new mayor is reaching out to the local community to involve them in his plans for the city. 2 to offer help and support to someone: She set up her charity to reach out to the thousands of homeless on the streets.

► noun DISTANCE ▷ 1 [U] Someone's reach is the distance within which they can stretch out their arm and touch something: I like to keep a notebook and pencil within (arm's) reach. • The top shelf is within/out of (his) reach. • Make sure that you keep all dangerous substances out of the reach of the children. 2 [U] the distance that can be travelled, especially easily: We live within (easy) reach of the station. 3 [S] the length of your arm when you stretch it out: You've got quite a long reach – can you get that box down from the top shelf for me? 4 [C usually singular] an act of stretching out your arm: He made a sudden reach for his gun. LIMIT ▷ 5 [S or U] the limit within which someone can achieve something: An expensive trip like that would be completely beyond/out of (my) reach (= I would not have enough money to pay for it). • After years of saving, the car was at last within (her) reach (= she had enough money to pay for it). PART ▷ 6 reaches [plural] a part of a river or part of an area of land: The expedition set out for the upper reaches of the Amazon. • There was little snow on the lower reaches of the ski run. • We know very little about the farthest/outermost reaches of the universe. b the highest or lowest levels of an organization: The news has shocked the upper reaches of the government.

IDIOM a reach of the imagination the act of trying very hard to imagine something: It takes (quite) a reach of the imagination to believe that story.

react /ri:ækt/ verb [I] [S] to act in a particular way as a direct result of something else: She slapped him and called him names, but he didn't react. • The judge reacted angrily to the suggestion that it hadn't been a fair trial. • Many people react (badly) to (= are made ill by) penicillin. • specialized Potassium reacts (= changes when mixed) with water.

PHRASAL VERB react against sth [S] to intentionally do the opposite of what someone wants you to do because you do not like their rules or ideas: He reacted against everything he had been taught.

reactant /ri:æk.tənt/ noun [C] specialized a substance that is part of a chemical reaction

Word partners for reaction

bring/provoke/produce a reaction • gaugel/judge sb's reaction • an adverse/angry/negative reaction • a favourable/positive reaction • a lukewarm/mixed reaction • a knee-jerk reaction • sb's first/gut/immediate/initial reaction • a reaction against/to/towards sth reaction /ri:æk.ʃən/ noun BEHAVIOUR ▷ 1 [C] behaviour, a feeling or an action that is a direct result of something else: I love to watch people's reactions when I say who I am. • There has been an immediate/widespread/hostile reaction against the government's proposed tax increases. • Reactions to the proposal so far have been adverse/favourable/mixed. 2 reactions [plural] someone's ability to act quickly when something happens: You need to have quick reactions to play these computer games. 3 [C usually singular] a type of behaviour or opinion that is produced or held with the intention of being different from something else: Her left-wing views are a reaction against the conservatism of her parents. UNPLEASANT EFFECT ▷ 4 [C] an unpleasant effect resulting from eating particular things or taking particular drugs: Some people have an allergic reaction to shellfish. IN SCIENCE ▷ 5 [C or U] an occasion when two or more substances react with and change each other: a chemical reaction NO CHANGE ▷ 6 [U] disapproving the belief or principle that there should be no social or political change, and the attempt to stop such change from happening: We must not allow reaction to stand in the way of progress.

reactionary /riˈæk.ʃən.ɪ/ (US) /-er-/ noun [C] disapproving a person who is opposed to political or social change or new ideas: Reactionaries are preventing reforms. • reactionary adj Reactionary forces/elements in the industry are preventing its progress towards greater efficiency.

reactivate /riˈæk.ti.veɪt/ verb [I or T] to bring or come back into action or use: The police file was reactivated because of new evidence. • The virus can reactivate at any time.

reactive /riˈæk.tɪv/ adj reacting to events or situations rather than acting first to change or prevent something: Unfortunately, the police have dealt with the problem of car theft in a reactive rather than a proactive way.

reactor /riˈæk.tə/ (US) /-tə/ noun [C] (also nuclear reactor) a large machine in which atoms are either divided or joined in order to produce power

read /riːd/ verb; noun

► verb (read, read /red/) UNDERSTAND ▷ 1 (A) [I or T] to look at words or symbols and understand what they mean: He spent a pleasant afternoon reading (the newspaper/a book). • I read about the family's success in the local paper. • It was too dark to read our map and we took a wrong turning. • Can you read music? • Your handwriting is so untidy I can't read it. • [+ (that)] I've read in the newspapers (that) there is a threat of war. • Put your plastic card in the slot, and the machine will read it and identify who you are. • Some children can read (= have learned the skill of reading) by the age of four. 2 (A) [I or T] to say the words that are printed or written: She read (the poem) slowly and quietly. • [+ two objects] Their teacher always reads them a story at the end of the day. • Children love to have stories read (aloud/out) to them. 3 (C) [T] to understand and give a particular meaning to written information, a statement, a situation, etc.: She missed the train because she read 18.30 p.m. as 8.30 p.m. instead of 6.30 p.m. • On page 19, for 'Blitish', please read 'British'. • If I've read the situation correctly, we should have some agreement on the contract by the end of the week. 4 [I or T] How you read a piece of writing, or how it reads, is how it seems when you read it: The letter reads as if (also non-standard like) it was written in a hurry. • Her latest novel reads well (= is written in an attractive way). 5 [T] (especially when communicating by radio), to hear and understand someone: Do you read me? • I read you loud and clear. 6 read sb to sleep to read aloud to someone until they go to sleep: Every night when I was a child my father used to read me to sleep. STATE ▷ 7 [I] (of something written or printed) to have or give the stated information or meaning: [+ speech] The start of the American Constitution reads 'We, the people of the United States...' • The thermometer is reading 40°C in the shade. STUDY ▷ 8 [I or T] UK formal to study at university or to study for a specialized qualification: They're both reading history at Cambridge. • legal She's reading for the Bar (= studying to become a type of lawyer called a barrister).

IDIOMS read sb's lips to follow the movements of someone's lips in order to understand what they are saying, especially if you are unable to hear them speak: She read his lips across the busy conference hall - 'Time to go'. → See also lip-read • read sb's mind (also read sb's thoughts) to know what someone is thinking without them telling you: humorous 'How about a drink, then?' 'Ah, you read my mind!' • read sb's palm to look at the lines on a person's hand as a way of trying to find out what will happen to them in the future: In a tent an old gypsy woman was reading palms. • read (sb) the riot act to speak angrily to someone about something they have done and warn them that they will be punished if they do it again • read between the lines (C) to try to understand someone's real feelings or intentions from what they say or write: Reading between the lines, I'd say he isn't happy with the situation. • read my lips informal a slightly rude way of telling someone to listen carefully to what you are saying: Read my lips. No new taxes. • read the runes UK literary to understand what will happen in the future, by looking at what is happening now: He was the first of the Eastern leaders to read the runes and make political changes to stay in power. • take sth as read UK to accept that something is true without making sure that it is: I just took it as read that anyone who applied for the course would have the necessary qualifications.

1275

reader

PHRASAL VERBS read sth into sth to believe that an action, remark or situation has a particular importance or meaning, often when this is not true: Don't read too much into her leaving so suddenly - she probably just had a train to catch. • read sth out (C) to read something and say the words aloud so that other people can hear: He read out the names of all the winners. • read sth over/through (C) to read something quickly from the beginning to the end, especially to find mistakes: I read your proposal through last night and I think we'll agree to it. • Always read over your work when you've finished. • read up (on/about) sth (C) to spend time reading in order to find out information about something: It's a good idea to read up on a company before going for an interview.

► noun [S] UK (C) the act of reading something: It's not brilliant but it's worth a read. • The book is a good/easy, etc. read. • informal Could I have a read of (= can I read) your newspaper?

readable /riː.də.bəl/ adj easy and enjoyable to read: It is an excellent and highly readable account of the army today.

-readable /-riː.də.bəl/ suffix machine/computer-readable in a form that is able to be used by a computer: Machine-readable passports will permit precise identity-checking.

readdress /riː.ə.dres/ verb [T] to write a different address on an envelope because the person it is intended for has moved to another place: We re-addressed all his letters to Australia for years after he had emigrated.

reader /riː.də/ (US) /-dər/ noun [C] PERSON WHO READS ▷ 1 someone who reads for pleasure, especially a person who reads a lot: He's a great/voracious reader (= reads many books). • She's an avid reader of historical novels. 2 someone who reads a particular newspaper or magazine: We asked our readers to write in and give us their views. • She described him as a typical Guardian reader. 3 specialized a person whose job is to advise a publishing company if a particular book should be published SIMPLE BOOK ▷ 4 a book containing a simple story that is designed for children who are learning to read or people who are learning a language: There are readers at five different levels, from beginner to upper intermediate. TEACHER ▷ 5 specialized a teacher, at British universities, just change it or harm it: In their senseless killing of innocent people, the terrorists have shown their lack of respect for human life. • She grumbled that young people today have/show no respect for the law. 4 [U] the feeling you show when you accept that different customs or cultures are different from your own and behave towards them in a way which would not cause offence: She teaches the students to have respect for different races and appreciate the diversity of other cultures. 5 sb's respects formal polite formal greetings: Please convey/give my respects to your parents. FEATURE ▷ 6 ② [C] a particular feature or detail: This proposal differs from the last one in many important respects/one important respect. • In most respects, the new film is better than the original.

R

IDIOMS in respect of sth (also with respect to sth) ② in connection with something: I am writing with respect to your letter of 15 June. • pay your respects formal 1 to visit someone in order to welcome them or talk to them: We went to pay our respects to our new neighbours. 2 (also pay your last respects) to honour someone after their death, usually by going to their funeral: Friends and relatives came to pay their last respects to Mr Clarke. • with (all due) respect (also with (the greatest) respect) used to express polite disagreement in a formal situation: With all due respect, Minister, I cannot agree with your last statement.

▷ verb [T] ADMIRE ▷ 1 ③ to feel or show admiration for someone or something that you believe has good ideas or qualities: I deeply respect David for what he has achieved. 2 respect yourself to be proud of your own qualities or achievements HONOUR ▷ 3 to treat something or someone with kindness and care: to respect someone's feelings • We should respect the environment and not pollute it. 4 ② to accept the importance of someone's rights or customs and to do nothing that would harm them or cause them offence: The agreement will respect the rights of both nations. • I would appreciate it if you would respect my privacy. 5 to accept that something is right or important and not to attempt to change it or harm it: The president pledged to respect the existing frontiers between the two countries. 6 to think that it is important to obey a law or rule: I was always taught to respect the law. 7 respect sb's wishes ② to do what someone has asked to have done: His children respected his last wishes and held a simple funeral for him.

respectability /rɪˈspek.təˈbɪl.ɪ.ti/ (US) /-ə.ti/ noun [U] the quality of being considered socially acceptable: an attempt to gain international respectability • The company operates out of modern offices to create an air of respectability.

respectable /rɪˈspek.tə.bəl/ adj 1 ② considered to be socially acceptable because of your good character, appearance or behaviour: a respectable young woman from a good family • This part of the city has become quite respectable in the last ten years. 2 ② describes an amount or quality that it is large enough or of a good enough standard to be acceptable: She earns a respectable salary. • The final score was a respectable 2-1.

IDIOM make yourself respectable humorous to put on clothes so that you are in a suitable state to meet someone: Could you wait a minute while I make myself respectable?

respectably /rɪˈspek.tə.bli/ adv 1 in a respectable way 2 in a way which achieves a reasonable result: The car performs respectably on the motorway, although it is slightly noisy. • It is a small-budget film, but it has done respectably at the box office.

respected /rɪˈspek.tɪd/ adj ② admired by many people for your qualities or achievements: a highly respected figure/politician/doctor • the country's most respected daily newspaper • He is very well respected in the business world.

respector /rɪˈspek.tər/ (US) /-tər/ noun [C] 1 someone who thinks that something is very important: He is a great respector of tradition. 2 be no respector of sth to treat or affect everyone in the same way: Air pollution is no respector of national frontiers.

respectful /rɪˈspek.tʃəl/ adj ADMIRATION ▷ 1 ③ showing admiration for someone or something: 'We're so pleased to meet you at last,' he said in a respectful tone of voice. → Opposite disrespectful HONOUR ▷ 2 ③ showing politeness or honour to someone or something: There was a respectful two-minute silence as we remembered the soldiers who had died in the war. 3 be respectful of sth to accept that something is important and not to try to change it or cause offence: He taught his children to be respectful of other cultures.

respectfully /rɪˈspek.tʃə.li/ adv POLITE ▷ 1 ② in a way that shows you want to be polite or honour someone: When she was asked if she had any ambition to become prime minister, she respectfully (= politely) declined to answer the question. • As the body was carried through the crowd, people drew back respectfully (= to show their respect). ADMIRATION ▷ 2 ② in a way that shows you admire someone or something

IDIOM Respectfully yours a very formal and polite way of ending a letter respective /rɪˈspek.tɪv/ adj [before noun] ③ relating or belonging to each of the separate people or things you have just mentioned: Everyone would go into the hall for assembly and then afterwards we'd go to our respective classes. • respectively /-li/ adv In the 200 metres, Lizzy and Sarah came first and third respectively (= Lizzy won the race and Sarah was third).

respiration /ˌres.pɪˈreɪ.ʃən/ noun [U] formal or specialized breathing: Her respiration was slow and difficult. • The diaphragm is the principal muscle of respiration. → See also artificial respiration respirator /ˌres.pɪˈreɪ.tər/ (US) /-tər/ noun [C] 1 artificial breathing equipment: Doctors put the patient on a respirator. 2 a device worn over the mouth and nose to prevent harmful substances from being breathed in: The firefighters wore respirators to help them breathe in the smoke-filled house.

respiratory /rɪˈspɪr.ə.tər.i/ (US) /ˌres.pə.ə.tər.i/ adj [before noun] formal or specialized relating to breathing: Smoking can cause respiratory diseases.

re'spiratory system noun [C usually singular] the organs which make it possible for you to breathe respire /rɪˈspaɪər/ (US) /-ˈspair/ verb [I] specialized to breathe respite /ˈres.paɪt/ noun formal 1 [U] a pause or rest from something difficult or unpleasant: We worked for hours without respite. 2 [S] a useful delay before something unpleasant happens: Their teacher was away, so they had a day's respite before their essays were due.

resplendent /rɪˈsplend.ənt/ adj literary having a very bright or beautiful appearance: the queen's resplendent purple robes • I saw Anna at the other end of the room, resplendent in a red cocktail dress. • resplendence /-dʌns/ noun [U] • resplendently /-li/ adv respond /rɪˈspɒnd/ (US) /-ˈspaːnd/ verb [I] 1 ② to say or do something as a reaction to something that has been said or done: [+ speech] To every question, he responded 'I don't know.' • I asked her what the time was, but she didn't respond. • He responded by marching off and slamming the door behind him. • How did she respond to the news? • [+ that] When the tax office wrote to me demanding unpaid income tax, I responded that I had been working abroad since 1998. • The police respond to emergencies (= arrive and are ready to deal with emergencies) in just a few minutes. 2 respond to sth If diseases or patients respond to treatment, the treatment begins to cure them: It remains to be seen whether the cancer will respond to treatment. • For patients who do not respond to drug treatment, surgery is a possible option.

respondent /rɪˈspɒn.dənt/ (US) /-ˈspɑːn-/ noun [C]
1 specialized a person who answers a request for information: In a recent opinion poll, a majority of respondents were against nuclear weapons. 2 legal in a court case, the person who a PETITION (= a formal letter to the court asking for a particular action) is made against, especially in a DIVORCE case: She divorced the respondent on the grounds of unreasonable behaviour.
 → Compare co-respondent

response /rɪˈspɒns/ (US) /-ˈspɑːns/ noun 1 [C or U] an answer or reaction: Responses to our advertisement have been disappointing. • Her proposals met with an enthusiastic response. • I looked in her face for some response, but she just stared at me blankly. • Management have granted a ten percent pay rise in response to union pressure. 2 [C] any of the parts sung or said, in some religious ceremonies, by the people in answer to the parts said or sung by the priest

Word partners for response draw/elicitevoke/provoke a response • get/have/ receive a response • an encouraging/favourable/good/positive response • an angry/negative/poor response • a direct/quick/rapid response • sb's immediate/initial/instinctive response • sb's response to sth • in response to sth response time noun [C or U] the amount of time that a person or system takes to react or to deal with something: The ambulance service is trying to reduce delays in response time.

responsibility /rɪˈspɒn.sɪˈbɪl.ɪ.ti/ (US) /-ˈspɑːn.səˈbɪl.ə.ti/ noun DUTY 1 [C or U] something that it is your job or duty to deal with: [+ to infinitive] It's her responsibility to ensure the project finishes on time. • She takes her responsibilities as a nurse very seriously. 2 have responsibility to be in a position of authority over someone and to have a duty to make certain that particular things are done: Who has responsibility here? • Jenny, you have responsibility for clearing up the room after the class. 3 have a responsibility to sb to have a duty to work for or help someone who is in a position of authority over you: The company says it cannot cut its prices any more because it has a responsibility to its shareholders. BLAME 4 [U] blame for something that has happened: Terrorists have claimed responsibility for (= stated that they caused) yesterday's bomb attack. • The minister took/accepted full responsibility for (= admitted that he was to blame for) the disaster and resigned. GOOD JUDGMENT 5 [U] good judgment and the ability to act correctly and make decisions on your own: He has no sense of responsibility. • The job carries a lot of responsibility (= it involves making important decisions).

IDIOM act/do sth on your own responsibility formal to act without being told to by someone in authority

1313

rest

Common mistake: responsibility

Warning: Check your spelling!

Responsibility is one of the 50 words most often spelled wrongly by learners.

Word partners for responsibility (DUTY)

have a responsibility • responsibility falls on sb • share responsibility • abdicate/avoid/shirk responsibility • a big/heavy/huge responsibility

Word partners for responsibility (BLAME)

accept/bear/shoulder/take responsibility • admit/claim responsibility • full/total responsibility • responsibility for sth responsible /rɪˈspɒn.sɪ.bəl/ (US) /-ˈspɑːn-/ adj DUTY 1 be responsible for sb/sth/doing sth 2 to have control and authority over something or someone and the duty of taking care of it or them: Paul is directly responsible for the efficient running of the office. • Her department is responsible for overseeing the councils. 2 be responsible to sb/sth to be controlled by someone or something: In Australia, the prime minister and the Cabinet are responsible to the House of Representatives.

Common mistake: responsible

The correct preposition to use after responsible is for.

Don't say 'responsible of/about something', say responsible for something:

We are all responsible of our own decisions.

We are all responsible for our own decisions.

BLAME 3 be responsible for sth/doing sth 3 to be the person who caused something to happen, especially something bad: Who is responsible for this terrible mess? • Last month's bad weather was responsible for the crop failure. 4 hold sb/sth responsible to blame someone or something: He held me personally responsible whenever anything went wrong in the project. 5 be responsible for your actions to be in control of yourself so that you can fairly be blamed for your bad actions: The defendant was depressed and therefore not fully responsible for her own actions. GOOD JUDGMENT 6 having good judgment and the ability to act correctly and make decisions on your own: a hard-working and responsible employee • Let's stay calm and try to behave like responsible adults. • Many big companies are now becoming more responsible about the way they operate. → Opposite irresponsible 7 A responsible job or position involves making important decisions or doing important things. • responsibly /-bli/ adv

Common mistake: responsible

Warning: Check your spelling!

Responsible is one of the 50 words most often spelled wrongly by learners. Remember: the correct spelling ends in 'ible', and not 'able'.

responsive /rɪˈspɒn.sɪv/ (US) /-ˈspɑːn-/ adj making a positive and quick reaction to something or someone: a responsive engine • a responsive audience • She wasn't responsive to questioning. • The disease has proved responsive to the new treatment. → Opposite unresponsive • responsively /-li/ adv • responsiveness /-nəs/ noun [U]

rest /rest/ verb; noun verb STOP 1 [I or T] to (cause someone or