

¹ soft

/ˈsɒft/

adjective

softer; softest

1 : easy to press, bend, cut, etc. : not hard or firm

[\[+\] Example sentences](#)

— opposite HARD

2 : smooth and pleasant to touch

[\[+\] Example sentences](#)

3 a : having a very light color : not strong or bright in color or tone

[\[+\] Example sentences](#)

b of light : not bright or harsh

[\[+\] Example sentences](#)

4 a : gentle in manner : not harsh

[\[+\] Example sentences](#)

b : not strong or very forceful

[\[+\] Example sentences](#)

c : having a low, gentle sound

[\[+\] Example sentences](#)

5 : having a curved or rounded outline

[\[+\] Example sentences](#)

6 disapproving : not strict, harsh, or critical enough

[\[+\] Example sentences](#)

7 : involving little work or effort : EASY

[+] Example sentences

8 a : not physically strong : not muscular

[+] Example sentences

b : not brave or tough

[+] Example sentences

9 : feeling sympathy for other people : sympathetic and kind

[+] Example sentences

— opposite HARD

10 : relating to matters that are not serious or important

[+] Example sentences

— opposite HARD

11 of an illegal drug : not as strong or harmful to the health as other drugs

[+] Example sentences

— opposite HARD

12 of water : not containing many minerals and able to make bubbles with soap

[+] Example sentences

— opposite HARD

13 : sounding like the “c” in “ace” or the “g” in “gem”

[+] Example sentences

— opposite HARD

soft in the head informal

: stupid or crazy

[+] Example sentences

soft on informal + old-fashioned

— softly adverb

[+] Example sentences

— softness /'sɒftnəs/  noun [singular]

[+] Example sentences

² soft

/'sɒft/

adverb

softer; softest

chiefly US

1 : in a soft or gentle way

[+] Example sentences

2 : in a way that is not strong or forceful

[+] Example sentences