Counsel,

A Final Written Decision in the above-referenced proceeding issued on October 23, 2025. Paper 29. Patent Owner filed a Notice of Appeal (Paper 30) from the Final Written Decision on November 5, 2025, before Petitioner filed its Request for Director Review (Paper 31). In view of the Notice to Appeal, the Office lacks jurisdiction to decide Petitioner's Request for Director Review, and the Request is dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. See In re Graves, 69 F.3d 1147, 1149-1150 (Fed. Cir. 1995).

Thanks.

CAUTION: This email has originated from a source outside of USPTO. PLEASE CONSIDER THE SOURCE before responding, clicking on links, or opening attachments.

Dear Andrew: Matt Bonini (copied) suggested I email you to seek your assistance. We represent Petitioner Micron in both the above-referenced cases. On Nov. 13, we filed a Request for Director Review in IPR2024-00794; today (Nov. 14) we also filed a Request for Director Review in IPR2024-00790. For both these Requests, no paper type for "File a Request for Director Review" was available. Nor was any option given to pay the requisite fee. Both cases have had Notices of Appeal filed. I filed both these Requests as paper type "Other:other."

I have also left several voicemails and sent several emails to PTABP-TACTSAdmin@uspto.gov. The Director and Trials were copied on the one response I did receive from them. I responded to that email and copied everyone, but have not received any additional response concerning how we need to proceed.

We would appreciate any guidance you could give us.

Thank you.

Karen
