ORDER
Granting Petitioner's Motion to Withdraw Counsel
37 C.F.R. § 42.10

With our authorization, Petitioners Nokia of America Corporation and AT&T Services, Inc. (“Petitioners”) filed an “Unopposed Motion to Withdraw Counsel” that requests withdrawal of Matthew M. Welch as counsel in this proceeding. Paper 7 (“Motion” or “Mot.”). Mr. Welch is currently back-up counsel for Petitioners.

The Motion indicates that Mr. Welch is leaving the firm representing Petitioners for a clerkship. Mot. 1. Petitioners’ Motion states that “Petitioners will continue to be represented by the other practitioners entered as counsel in the proceeding, and Mr. Welch’s withdrawal can be accomplished without material adverse effect on the interests of the clients” and that “Petitioners do not contemplate any change to any schedule.” Id.

Concurrently with the Motion, Petitioners filed Updated Mandatory Notices confirming that Petitioners continue to be represented by properly designated lead and back-up counsel that are all registered practitioners before the Office. Paper 8.

In the Motion, Petitioners represent that “Patent Owner has informed Petitioners that it does not oppose this motion.” Mot. 1.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is ORDERED that Petitioners’ Motion is granted.
