CIVIL ACTION NO. 2:23-CV-00231-JRG

ORDER

Before the Court is the Joint Stipulation of Partial Dismissal with Prejudice (the “Stipulation”) filed by Plaintiff Iarnach Technologies Ltd. (“Plaintiff”), Defendants AT&T Corp., AT&T Ventures, LLC (f/k/a AT&T Communications LLC), AT&T Mobility LLC, AT&T Mobility II LLC, and AT&T Services Inc. (collectively “Defendants”), and Intervenor Nokia of America Corp. (“Nokia” and with Plaintiff and Defendants, the “Parties”). (Dkt. No. 150.) In the Stipulation, Plaintiff states that it will dismiss its claim for infringement of U.S. Patent No. 8,934,359 (the “’359 Patent”) against Defendants with prejudice. (Id. at 1.) Accordingly, Nokia’s counterclaim for non-infringement with respect to the ’359 Patent is moot and should be dismissed. (Id.) Plaintiff further clarifies that dismissal of the ’359 Patent shall not preclude it “from bringing future claims of infringement of the ’359 Patent against [Defendants] and/or Nokia should either entity implement the claimed feature in the future.” (Id.)

Having considered the Stipulation, the Court finds that it should be and hereby is GRANTED. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that Plaintiff’s claim for infringement of the ’359 Patent is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE from the above-captioned case. Further, it is ORDERED that Nokia's counterclaim for non-infringement of the '359 Patent is DISMISSED AS MOOT from the above-captioned case. Each party is to bear its own costs, expenses, and attorneys' fees associated with these dismissals.

The Clerk of Court is directed to MAINTAIN AS OPEN the above-captioned case.

So ORDERED and SIGNED this 9th day of October, 2024.

RODNEY GILSTRAP
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
