Dear Director Squires,

While Petitioners fuboTV and MasterClass do not oppose entering the two emails identified by DISH, a third email (attached) should also be included for completeness. This email concerns the Board's denial of DISH's request to cross-file the hearing transcript from IPR2024-00940, brought by a different Petitioner (Aylo), in IPR Nos. 2024-00917, -00918, and -00919, brought by Petitioners fuboTV and MasterClass. Good cause exists for entering this additional email for the same reasons identified by DISH below.

Respectfully,
Reba

Dear Honorable Board,

Given that WebGroup Czech Republic A.S. and NKL Associates, S.R.O. are Petitioners of the joinder IPRs, we take no position on this issue.

Thanks,

Subject: IPR2024-00917, -00918, and -00919 - Request to Enter Board Correspondence Into Record

CAUTION: This email has originated from a source outside of USPTO. PLEASE CONSIDER THE SOURCE before responding, clicking on links, or opening attachments.

Dear Director Squires,

Patent Owner DISH Technologies L.L.C. ("DISH") intends to seek Director Review of the Final Written Decisions in IPR2024-00917, -00918, and -00919, and anticipates filing its Director Review requests tomorrow, Friday, December 12.

It has come to DISH's attention that the attached e-mails from the Board to the parties in these proceedings were not entered into the record. To ensure that the Director has a complete and accurate record before any review is undertaken, DISH respectfully requests, pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 42.75(c)(3), that these e-mails be entered as exhibits in each corresponding IPR.

The first e-mail concerns the Board's denial of DISH's request for authorization to file a motion for additional discovery relating to real-party-in-interest issues. The second e-mail concerns the Board's denial of DISH's request for authorization to seek transfer of jurisdiction over certain co-pending ex parte reexaminations and to move for termination of those proceedings.

Good cause exists for entering these materials. The Board has previously entered similar e-mail correspondence and orders into the record (e.g., Exhibits 3001, 3002, 3003, 3004, and 3006), and the attached communications pertain to procedural matters relevant to PTAB policy and DISH's forthcoming Director Review request.

In the alternative, should the Office prefer not to enter the e-mails itself, DISH respectfully requests authorization to file the attached e-mails as exhibits in connection with DISH's forthcoming Director Review request.

Counsel for DISH contacted Petitioners' counsel yesterday morning seeking their position on this request but has not yet received a response.

Counsel for DISH is available for a conference call should the Office have any questions or wish to discuss further.

Respectfully,

Andrew Wilson
