I. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 42.64(b), Patent Owner hereby files its objections under the Federal Rules of Evidence (“FRE”) to evidence submitted with the petition. The Board instituted trial on November 18, 2024 and therefore these objections are timely.

II. OBJECTIONS TO TRANSLATIONS OF FOREIGN-LANGUAGE DOCUMENTS

The exhibits identified below are translations of foreign-language documents. The objections for each identified exhibit are substantially similar and summarized hereinafter.

Each exhibit is objected as being hearsay or containing hearsay under FRE 801 and is inadmissible under FRE 802-807. Each exhibit is objected to under the Best Evidence Rule FRE 1002. Each exhibit is objected to as being or containing inaccuracies and being unfairly prejudicial, confusing, and misleading under FRE 403. Each exhibit is objected to as containing testimony on matters for which the witness lacks personal knowledge under FRE 602. Each exhibit is objected to as containing testimony from an unqualified witness under FRE 604. Each exhibit is objected to as unhelpful to resolving issues and as offering expert testimony from a lay witness under FRE 701. Each exhibit is objected to as containing testimony from an unqualified expert under FRE 702 and FRE 703 and further failing to be based on sufficient facts/data, the product of reliable principles/methods, or reliable application of the principles/methods and for being conclusory. Each exhibit is objected to as having substantial prejudicial effect under FRE 703.
