GRANT OF GOOD CAUSE EXTENSION
35 U.S.C. § 316(a)(11); 37 C.F.R. § 42.100(c)

Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 316(a)(11), “the final determination in an inter partes review [shall] be issued not later than 1 year after the date on which the Director notices the institution of a review under this chapter, except that the Director may, for good cause shown, extend the 1-year period by not more than 6 months” The Director has delegated the authority to extend the one-year period to the Chief Administrative Patent Judge. See 37 C.F.R. § 42.100(c) (2025). In particular, 37 C.F.R.

§ 42.100(c) provides:

An inter partes review proceeding shall be administered such that pendency before the Board after institution is normally no more than one year. The time can be extended by up to six months for good cause by the Chief Administrative Patent Judge

In the absence of any extension, final written decisions resolving these proceedings would be due no later than November 26, 2025. See 35 U.S.C. § 316(a)(11) (final written decision presumptively due no later than one year after entry of decision on institution); IPR2024-00935, Paper 9 (Decision on Institution, dated November 26, 2024); IPR2024-00936, Paper 9 (Decision on Institution, dated November 26, 2024). However, due to complex issues involved in these proceedings, as well as panel workload issues and the unforeseen unavailability of a panel member, the Acting Chief Administrative Patent Judge has determined that good cause exists under the unique circumstances presented, to extend the one-year period for issuing final written decisions in these proceedings, in accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 42.100(c).
