CAUTION: This email has originated from a source outside of USPTO. PLEASE CONSIDER THE SOURCE before responding, clicking on links, or opening attachments.

Dear Honorable Board,

Pursuant to the Order Setting Oral Argument (Paper 41), 37 C.F.R. § 42.54, and the proposed

IPR2024-00935, Ex. 3003

Protective Order submitted by Patent Owner as Exhibit A to Patent Owner's Motion for Entry of Default Protective Order and Motion to Seal (Paper 18), the parties respectfully request that the oral hearing for the above-captioned case be conducted in a sealed courtroom for purposes of presenting and discussing ParkerVision's confidential information. For the same reasons discussed in the motions to seal previously filed by the parties (see Papers 18, 20, 43, 46, 51, 55, 57, and 59), good cause exists for sealing the oral hearing.

Accordingly, the parties respectfully request that the Board sealed the oral hearing in IPR2024-00935 scheduled for September 10, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. ET.

Respectfully submitted,

Taylor Lepore
