Counsel: Thank you for your email. With respect to Dr. Papanikolopoulos in IPR2024-00960, you are correct that his deposition is scheduled for June 25. The reference to June 23 was a typo. We confirm the 8am ET start time on June 25.

Regarding Mr. Ojeda and Ms. Paras, they executed the declarations on behalf of Morningside IP, the translation company that conducted the translations that were submitted. Despite our request that Petitioner forego any such deposition in light of Petitioner's failure to identify any alleged issues with the translations or with the certifications that bear on any issue in the proceeding, we are making Mr. Wu, managing director at Morningside IP, available for deposition on behalf of Morningside IP regarding the declarations.

Regards,
-Derrick

We note that you previously proposed June 25 for the remote deposition of Dr. Papanikolopoulos in IPR2024-00960. Therefore, we want to check whether your date of June 23 listed below is in error.

If June 23 is in error and you intended June 25, we accept June 25 beginning at 8am ET for the remote deposition. If you intended to move the date to June 23, please reconfirm and we can proceed with June 23 at 8am ET.

As to our request to depose Mr. Ojeda and Ms. Paras, please confirm that you are declining to make them available. If so, we will proceed with a remote deposition of Mr. Wu on June 10 at 11am ET.

Subject: RE: IPR Nos. IPR2024-00958, -00959, -00960: Deposition Dates

Counsel:

We confirm June 12 for Dr. Papanikolopoulos' in-person deposition in IPR2024-00959. Dr. Papanikolopoulos will appear at Robins Kaplan's Minneapolis office.

Dr. Papanikolopoulos is also available for a remote deposition on June 25 in IPR2024-00960. Please note that Dr. Papanikolopoulos will be located in Cyprus for that deposition, which is 7 hours ahead of Eastern Time U.S. We would like to find a mutually agreeable start time so that the deposition occurs at a reasonable time for all participants.

As to Mr. Ojeda and Ms. Paras, we do not believe that their depositions would be fruitful uses of the parties' time and resources. Their declarations speak for themselves, and Petitioner has not identified any specific issues with the translations or with the certifications that bear on any issue in the proceeding. Therefore, in the interest of securing "the just, speedy, and inexpensive resolution to the proceeding" (37 C.F.R. § 42.1(b)), we ask that Petitioner reconsider its requests to take the depositions of Mr. Ojeda and Ms. Paras.

Regards,
-Derrick

With respect to Dr. Papanikolopoulos, he is not available for an in-person deposition on the dates that you listed due to previously scheduled travel outside of the country.
