09/17/2024	134	TEXT ORDER: This matter comes before the Court upon a review of the status of this matter and the parties' Amended Joint Claim Construction and Prehearing Statement. (Doc. No. 105). In the submission, the parties appear to have not fully met and conferred as to the number of terms to be argued at the anticipated Markman Hearing, with one party agreeing to limit the claim terms to five and the other party contending such limitations were premature (Section V of Am. Jt. Claim Construction and Prehearing Statement). In light of the Court's resolution of the prior Motion to Strike and the recent Motion for Leave to Amend the Invalidity Contentions, the parties are instructed to meet and confer as to the number of terms to be presented at the Markman hearing. The parties are strongly encouraged to streamline the issues for the hearing and reasonably limit the number of terms. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 1. The parties shall advise the Court as to their proposed limitations on the number of claim terms to be presented at the Markman hearing by no later than September 24, 2024.
