Dear Honorable Board,

Thank you for the e-mail communication below.

Because Petitioner did not follow the proper procedure for withdrawing Mr. Foley as back-up counsel, including seeking Patent Owner's position on a motion to remove Mr. Foley as back-up counsel, Patent Owner did not have an opportunity to consider, let alone oppose, Petitioner's request. While Patent Owner does not wish to contravene the Board's removal of Mr. Foley, Patent Owner nevertheless reserve its right to address any downstream effect this may have in this proceeding, at least because Mr. Foley served a declaration as Supplemental Evidence. Specifically, Patent Owner reserves its right to seek Mr. Foley's deposition and expect that he will be made available accordingly notwithstanding his change in status as counsel of record.

Sincerely,
Erin M. Sommers

Subject: RE: IPR2024-01014: Request to Modify Petitioner's Counsel Information

Counsel,

The parties are reminded that, in this inter partes review, ex parte communications with the Board are not permitted.

Any future communications with the Board must include counsel for both parties.

Petitioner's request to withdraw Thomas F. Foley as back-up counsel is granted.
Petitioner must update its

Ex. 3003
IPR2024-01014

mandatory notices to reflect this change. No other action is necessary at this time.

RE: Inari Agriculture, Inc. v. Corteva Agriscience LLC
Case No. IPR2024-01014

Dear Trials:

We are writing to request your assistance in modifying the counsel information for the Petitioner in P-TACTS for Case No. IPR2024-01014. Petitioner wishes to remove Thomas F. Foley from its list of Backup Counsel. See Petitioner's First Updated Mandatory Notices, Paper 20, filed January 28, 2025.

Thank you for your assistance in this regard.

Sincerely,
Mac Rush
