Extracurricular Activities:

To	current	Enterprise Neurosystem (sponsored by the Red-Hat division of IBM)
From	2022	San Francisco, CA
Position	Data Acquisition, Signal Processing & ML Consultant

- Designed biological monitoring systems for agricultural and climate monitoring projects. Developed novel system for monitoring beehives using MEMS-based ultrasonic acoustic sensors. System design also includes atmospheric sensors to measure temperature, humidity, methane, CO2, among other parameters. An on-site processor system digitizes and preprocesses the data for transmission to a machine learning system.
- Beehive clusters from all over the world will link to an IBM federated learning ML system allowing scientists to better understand stresses on honeybee colonies and help mitigate the significant decline in the honeybee population. The system will also be useful for monitoring regional climate change.
- The USDA announced collaborating with our group at the COP27 conference in Egypt (11/22). We co-sponsored in May 2023 a smart agriculture technology summit with the USDA called "AIM4C". I presented a paper on sensor systems for monitoring nature's networks. Al Gore and John Kerry both spoke at the conference along with Agriculture Secretary Vilsack.
- The group is further working with the United Nations CNTC, a peer group of the Inter-governmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC). At COP28 in Dubai, the UN CNTC announce engaging Enterprise Neurosystem for multiple environmental monitoring projects in East Africa.

Professional Associations, Standards Bodies Participation and Awards:

- Delivered papers to and presented at numerous technical conferences in U.S., Asia and Europe including the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB), National Cable Television Association (NCTA), Society of Cable Telecommunication Engineers (SCTE), International Broadcast Conference (IBC) and the Montreux International Television Symposium, as well as many IEEE conferences and other industry related trade shows. (Papers available upon request.) Published two technical articles in trade magazines on graphics systems and networking.
- Member of IEEE, SMPTE, SCTE and Association of Computing Machinery (ACM).
- Served on many standards bodies over several decades including: ISO MPEG2, ATSC (HDTV standards), IEEE (802.14), CableLabs for plant and set-top standards efforts, EIA for cable TV compatibility (IR pass-through) and, in conjunction with CableLabs, cable TV interfaces such as CableCard.
- Awards: Society of Cable Television Engineers (SCTE)—Best New Technology at National Cable Television Association (NCTA) 1996 for ICTV's interactive TV and VOD service; Best of Show at CES 2004 and 2005, MovieBeam set-top and service; 2003 Emmy Award went to Vizio, Inc for their precision audience measurement service which utilizes my patented audio automated content recognition (ACR) technology.
