Case IPR2024-01071
Patent 8,905,541

NOTICE OF CORRECTED PETITION EXHIBITS 1007 AND 1012

Petitioner Luxottica of America Inc. submits this Notice of Corrected Petition Exhibits 1007 and 1012 as authorized and required by the Board via email on September 17, 2024.

Exhibit 1007 includes a translator declaration, JP S58-113913 in Japanese, and an English translation of JP S58-113913. As originally filed, Exhibit 1007's copy of JP S58-113913 inadvertently contained two blank pages (pages 69 and 70) that should have collectively included drawings and Japanese text. The drawings and corresponding text appeared in the English-translation portion of the original Exhibit 1007. Petitioner is submitting herewith a corrected Exhibit 1007 in which pages 69 and 70 of the Japanese portion now have the drawings and Japanese text they should have had originally. Otherwise, corrected Exhibit 1007 is the same as the original.

Exhibit 1012 includes a translator's declaration, EP 1785763 in German, and an English translation of EP 1785763. As originally filed, the translator's declaration correctly stated a translation had been performed from German to English but incorrectly identified the translated document as a Japanese publication. Petitioner is submitting herewith a corrected Exhibit 1012 that includes a revised declaration properly identifying the translated document as European Patent Application Publication Number 1785763. The corrected Exhibit 1012 also removes separate page numbers and reorders the content so that the revised declaration appears first, followed by EP 1785763 in German, and then its English translation. Additionally, EP 1785763 in German and its English translation are now labeled as Exhibit A and Exhibit B, respectively, consistent with the revised declaration. No other changes have been made to the corrected Exhibit 1012 relative to the original.
