Nice Shop - No Manual - No Support

The website is totally focussed on selling. Ring comes with no manual. There is a link on the package. Link points to the website, which is totally focussed on selling. Another ring could be all yours. Still no manual. You check the website... When it seems not cool to add a manual to the product why not at least give the user a link to a guide that they can read on their mobile?

Good Customer Support

I'm out of the calibration period that is a bit long (14 days). I got stuck after that but the support helped me unlocking it. The Circular Ring is a great device for monitoring my health. Highly recommended for the health-conscious!

Data Is Good, Hardware Is Not Durable

Don't wear the ring if you do any outdoor activities. I'm doing some climbings and the color has peeled off. Bluetooth can be a mess sometimes. Aside that using the Circular Ring for a few weeks and the ring provides detailed analyses of sleep and activity, and it's comfortable to wear. The app also provides useful reminders and personalized recommendations.

Circular

Thank you for your feedback! 🙏 We're glad to hear you're finding the data insights and app features helpful. However, we're sorry to hear about the wear and tear during outdoor activities and the Bluetooth issues. We'll definitely take this into account for future improvements. Feel free to reach out to our support team if you'd like assistance with these concerns. 🛠️
