Exhibit 15
Infringement Claim Chart for U.S. Patent No. 10,244,800 ("the '800 Patent")

Senita's Sarah Sports Bra product directly and indirectly infringes Claims 1, 2, 5, and 7 ("Asserted Claims") of the '800 Patent. The Sarah Sports Bra product infringes the '800 Patent because it includes all the features embodied in Claims 1, 2, 5, and 7, literally or by the doctrine of equivalents, whenever an item is positioned in its back pocket—which Senita has done and induced others to do.

U.S. Patent No. 10,244,800 (Dependent Claim 7)
7. The pocket bra assembly of claim 1 wherein the back pocket is formed by a patch connected to the back portion of the at least one of the chest strap and shoulder straps by stitching about a part of a perimeter of the patch, a gap in the stitching leaving a portion of the perimeter of the patch unattached, thereby forming an opening providing access to the pocket interior formed by the patch.	The Sarah Sports Bra's pocket is formed by a patch stitched around its perimeter to the bra's central area. The perimeter stitching does not continue across the upper edge of the patch, which leaves the upper edge unattached to the central portion and provides an opening by which the pocket interior is accessed.
